On Marriage and Concupiscence Saint Augustine, Saint Augustine of Hippo, 2015-06-08 Augustine the man with upturned eye with pen in the left hand and a burning heart in the right as he is usually represented is a philosophical and theological genius of the first order towering like a pyramid above his age and looking down commandingly upon succeeding centuries He had a mind uncommonly fertile and deep bold and soaring and with it what is better a heart full of Christian love and humility He stands of right by the side of the greatest philosophers of antiquity and of modern times We meet him alike on the broad highways and the narrow footpaths on the giddy Alpine heights and in the awful depths of speculation wherever philosophical thinkers before him or after him have trod As a theologian he is facile princeps at least surpassed by no church father schoolman or reformer With royal munificence he scattered ideas in passing which have set in mighty motion other lands and later times He combined the creative power of Tertullian with the churchly spirit of Cyprian the speculative intellect of the Greek church with the practical tact of the Latin He was a Christian philosopher and a philosophical theologian to the full
