Stephen B. Bell, Valerie Bell

Marriage Of Sticks:

The Marriage of Sticks Jonathan Carroll, 2000-11-04 A woman who stole another woman's husband is assaulted by ghosts. The ghosts inform her she is actually a vampire and must mend her ways by using her power to bring good. By the author of Kissing the Beehive     "The" Tribes and Castes of the North-Western Provinces and Oudh William Crooke, 1896

Callaghan's Official Wisconsin Reports Wisconsin. Supreme Court, 2012     Cultural Models in Language and Thought Dorothy Holland, 1987-01-30 A multidisciplinary collaboration exploring the role of cultural knowledge in everyday language and understanding     Made to be Loved Stephen B. Bell, Valerie Bell, 1999-01-11 While desired, the idea of spiritual intimacy is scary and even threatening to some couples. They've tried those other couples' devotional books but sharing Bible study and prayer time together just doesn't come naturally. And when these sharing times seem awkward and manipulated, many couples put the book back on the shelf and simply go on as they were before. If this sounds all too familiar, Made to Be Loved is the sip of cool water for your thirsty marriage. Steve and Valerie Bell encourage couples to go beyond treating the symptoms of a marriage that lacks spiritual intimacy and go straight to the root of the problem. The real disease that threatens marriages is spiritual distance from God. According to the Bells, when a husband and wife invite God into their marriage, their perspectives change. Hearts are softened, expectations become more realistic, sexual relations take on a soulful sweetness, even fights get better. Take your marriage to the next level with the help of Steve and Valerie Bell. Develop a deeper love relationship with you, God, and in doing so, create a whole new atmosphere in your marriage.     Mythprint, 2000

African Material Culture Mary Jo Arnoldi, Kris L. Hardin, 1996-04-22 This volume has much to recommend it, providing fascinating and stimulating insights into many arenas of material culture, many of which still remain only superficially explored in the archaeological literature. Archaeological Review a vivid introduction to the topic. A glimpse into the unique and changing identities in an ever-changing world. Come All Ye Fourteen interdisciplinary essays open new perspectives for understanding African societies and cultures through the contextualized study of objects, treating everything from the production of material objects to the meaning of sticks, masquerades, household tools, clothing, and the television set in the contemporary repertoire of African material culture.     Malabar and Anjengo Charles Alexander Innes, 1915     "If Each Comes Halfway" Kathryn S. March, 2018-08-06 For twenty-five years Kathryn S. March has collected the life stories of the women of a Buddhist Tamang farming community in Nepal. In If Each Comes Halfway she shows the process by which she and Tamang women reached across their cultural differences to find common ground. March allows the women's own words to paint a vivid portrait of their highland home. Because Tamang women frequently told their stories by singing poetic songs in the middle of their conversations with March, each book includes a CD of traditional songs not recorded elsewhere. Striking photographs of the Tamang people accent the book's written accounts, and the CD's musical examples. In conversation and song, the Tamang open their hearts and minds as they address a broad range of topics, life in extended households.

women's property issues wage employment and out migration sexism and troubled relations with other ethnic groups Young women reflect on uncertainties Middle aged women discuss obligations Older women speak poignantly and bluntly about weariness and waiting to die The goal of March's approach to ethnography is to place Tamang women in control of how their stories are told and allow an unusually intimate glimpse into their world      Yearbook Central Conference of American Rabbis,1923 Contains proceedings of annual conventions      Castes and Tribes of Southern India Edgar Thurston,1909
