Sustainable Development Elohimi, Elmar A. Stuhler, Francisco Parra-Luna, 2000 Intellectual Property Thomas Cottier, Petros Constantinos Mavroidis, Marion Panizzon, 2010-04-23 The incorporation of intellectual property protection into the WTO international trading system has been a milestone in international economic law and has added a new dimension to trade regulation new rights and obligations and new challenges alike The contributors leading scholars and practitioners in the field provide insights into the legal relationship of the TRIPs Agreement to the GATT 94 and the GATS The book widens the debate with a thorough discussion on pending and unresolved relations of TRIPs the WTO UPOV the Convention on Biodiversity and Farmers Rights contained in the FAO International Undertaking and efforts of the World Bank GCIAR system including IPGRI What will be the impact of TRIPs on ownership of plant genetic resources Largely a victory for OECD countries the present state of intellectual property rights has important implications for developing countries The incorporation of intellectual property rights into the WTO system will eventually change the relationship of trade competition and intellectual property It will equally have to assist in providing equitable sharing of benefits in the use of plant genetic resources All of these issues are essential for the revision of exclusions from patenting in TRIPs This volume offers insights into how this difficult task could and should be approached in a balanced manner and will be essential reading for economists and trade and intellectual property lawyers interested in the subject Moreover the volume will be relevant to agricultural economists as it addresses complex problems in the interstices of trade intellectual property plant genetic resources and sustainable development Thomas Cottier is Professor of European and International Economic Law University of Bern and Managing Director World Trade Institute University of Bern Petros C Mavroidis is Professor of Law University of Neuchâtel He formerly worked in the Legal Affairs Division of the World Trade Organization Marion Panizzon is Research Fellow University of Bern Simon Lacey is Research Fellow University of Bern      Marshaling Technology for Development National Research Council Staff,1995

Global Technology Transfer John Chumack,2002 Governments the world over fret continuously about the low level of transfer of technology especially within their own countries The general problem is military to industry although the variations are numerous Problems of presentation offering and support complicate an already byzantine world Yet somewhere within this dilemma lie the seeds of tomorrow's economic uptick Besides the nontrivial problems involved here the reluctance of the people having the technology to share it with someone who can profit from it stands out This book presents the issues and offers a comprehensive bibliography for easy access      Information Technology for Development in the Islamic World Mehmet Ergin,Mustafa Doruk,Mouneef R.
