Marshall Field:

Marshall Field's Gayle Soucek, 2013-02-26 A history of the iconic department store and a city's life over a century and a half Anyone who has waited in a Christmas line for the Walnut Room's Great Tree can attest that Chicago's loyalty to Marshall Field's is fierce Dayton Hudson even had to take out advertising around town to apologize for changing the Field's hallowed green bags And with good reason the store and those who ran it shaped the city's streets subsidized its culture and heralded its progress The resulting commercial empire dictated wholesale trade terms in Calcutta and sponsored towns in North Carolina but its essence was always Chicago So when the Marshall Field name was retired in 2006 after the stores were purchased by Macy's protest slogans like Field's is Chicago and Field's as Chicago as it gets weren't just emotional hype Many still hope that name will be resurrected like the city it helped support during the Great Fire and the Great Depression Until then fans of Marshall Field's can celebrate its history with this warm look back at the beloved institution

Remembering Marshall Field's Leslie Goddard, 2011-07 For more than 150 years Marshall Field's reigned as Chicago's leading department store celebrated for its exceptional service spectacular window displays and fashionable merchandise Few shoppers recalled its origins as a small dry goods business opened in 1852 by a New York Quaker named Potter Palmer That store eventually renamed Marshall Field and Company weathered economic downturns spectacular fires and fierce competition to become a world class retailer and merchandise powerhouse Marshall Field sent buyers to Europe for the latest fashions insisted on courteous service and immortalized the phrase give the lady what she wants The store prided itself on its dazzling Tiffany mosaic dome Walnut Room restaurant bronze clocks and a string of firsts including the first bridal registry and first book signing Enjoy the rich history of Marshall Field's in this collection of 15 historic black and white postcards Marshall Field and Company Samuel Herbert Ditchett, 1922 History of Marshall Field & Co., 1852-1906
