Martha Berry, a Woman of Courageous Spirit and Bold Dreams Joyce Blackburn,1992 Martha Berry started a revolution that has changed the lives of more young men and women than she ever dreamed possible and her dreams were big ones Martha Berry started a revolution that has changed the lives of more young men and women than she ever dreamed possible and her dreams were big ones Starting with a tiny log cabin Martha Berry devoted her life to building a school where underprivileged children could be taught a vocation along with academic studies From her first contacts with the poor mountain children of Georgia she faced disapproval from her more wealthy relatives and friends and she encountered many disappointments But her determination coupled with her charm and genius inspired both the poor and the wealthy to aid in her crusade for a better education for all children Today Berry College stands as a fitting monument to the vision of this inspired woman who was honored for her work by three presidents of the United States

Families Forays are bursting with details about the people and the pursuits that colored the life of Henry Ford. Here the reader will meet prominent and diverse figures such as Thomas Edison, John Burroughs, George Washington, Carver, Helen Keller, and Mahatma Gandhi, all of whose lives intersected that of Henry Ford at some interesting point in his life. Also brought to life in these pages are the branches of Ford's family tree from his Irish ancestors to the descendants who carry his legacy today. Although it was the automobile that made him an industrial icon, Henry Ford could boast of exploits in many other arenas as well: railroads, speedboats, robots, flour mills, rubber plantations, and humanitarian efforts around the world and in his own backyard. Ford's hard work and passionate interests brought him great wealth and this book provides a peek at the luxuries he and his wife Clara enjoyed from a yacht and a private rail car to gracious residences in Michigan, Florida, and Georgia.

Georgia Women Ann Short Chirhart, Betty Wood, 2009. This first of two volumes extends from the founding of the colony of Georgia in 1733 up to the Progressive era. From the beginning, Georgia women were instrumental in shaping the state, yet most histories minimize their contributions. The essays in this volume include women of many ethnicities and classes who played an important role in Georgia's history. Though sources for understanding the lives of women in Georgia during the colonial period are scarce, the early essays profile Mary Musgrove, an important player in the relations between the Creek nation and the British Crown, and the loyalist Elizabeth Johnston, who left Georgia for Nova Scotia in 1806. Another essay examines the near mythical quality of the American Revolution era accounts of Georgia's War Woman, Nancy Hart. The later essays are multifaceted in their examination of the way different women experienced Georgia's antebellum social and political life, the tumult of the Civil War, and the lingering consequences of both the conflict itself and Emancipation. After the war, both necessity and opportunity changed women's lives as educated white women like Eliza Andrews established or taught in schools and as African American women like Lucy Craft Laney, who later founded the Haines Institute, attended school for the first time. Georgia Women also profiles reform minded women like Mary Latimer McLendon, Rebecca Latimer Felton, Mildred Rutherford, Nellie Peters Black, and Martha Berry, who worked tirelessly for causes ranging from temperance to suffrage to education. The stories of the women portrayed in this volume provide valuable glimpses into the lives and experiences of all Georgia women during the first century and a half of the state's existence. Historical figures include Mary Musgrove, Nancy Hart, Elizabeth Lichtenstein Johnston, Ellen Craft, Fanny Kemble, Frances Butler Leigh, Susie King Taylor, Eliza Frances Andrews, Amanda America Dickson, Mary Ann Harris Gay, Rebecca Latimer Felton, Mary Latimer McLendon, Mildred Lewis Rutherford, Nellie Peters Black, Lucy Craft Laney, Martha Berry, Corra Harris, Juliette Gordon Low.
