Martian Race:

The Martian Race Gregory Benford, 2009-06-23 The Nebula Award winning author's classic hard SF thriller of a race to Mars and the strange and beautiful things encountered on the Red Planet. Publishers Weekly In the early twenty first century a 30 billion dollar prize will be awarded to the private organization that successfully lands a spaceship on Mars. Eccentric billionaire John Axelrod believes he can accomplish the impossible challenge. But following closely behind his Consortium is a joint venture mounted by China and Europe. The race to the Red Planet is on but getting there is just the beginning. The Subject of Race in American Science Fiction Sharon DeGraw, 2006-12-19 While the connections between science fiction and race have largely been neglected by scholars racial identity is a key element of the subjectivity constructed in American SF. In his Mars series Edgar Rice Burroughs primarily supported essentialist constructions of racial identity but also included a few elements of racial egalitarianism. Writing in the 1930s George S. Schuyler revised Burroughs' normative SF triangle of white author, white audience and white protagonist and promoted an individualistic, highly variable concept of race instead. While both Burroughs and Schuyler wrote SF focusing on racial identity, the largely separate genres of science fiction and African American literature prevented the similarities between the two authors from being adequately acknowledged and explored. Beginning in the 1960s Samuel R. Delany more fully joined SF and African American literature. Delany expands on Schuyler's racial constructionist approach to identity including gender and sexuality in addition to race. Critically intertwining the genres of SF and African American literature allows a critique of the racism in the science fiction and a more accurate and positive portrayal of the scientific connections in the African American literature. Connecting the popular fiction of Burroughs, the controversial career of Schuyler and the postmodern texts of Delany illuminates a gradual change from a stable essentialist construction of racial identity at the turn of the century to the variable social construction of poststructuralist subjectivity today. Destruction of Earth Robert Reynolds, 2020-09-16 This story pertains to three different stories that have been foretold or even foreseen but to fully witness the destruction of each one can show each of us how we are able to survive. The first of the three stories was called The Plague in which killed about ten to twenty million people in Europe. The second of the three stories is called Mysterious Cylinder in which unleashed a creature of an unknown origin upon the world. The third and final of the three stories is Large size meteor that struck the Earth and when it did hit the Earth it once again unleashed hell onto this world.
