Contemporary Art, Systems and the Aesthetics of Dispersion Francis Halsall, 2023-05-16 Using five case studies of contemporary art this book uses ideas of systems and dispersion to understand identity and experience in late capitalism This book considers five artists who exemplify contemporary art practice Seth Price Liam Gillick Martin Creed Hito Steyerl and Theaster Gates Given the diversity of materials used in art today once traditional artistic mediums and practices have become obsolete in describing what artists do today Francis Halsall argues that in the face of this obsolescence the ideas of

system and dispersion become very useful in understanding contemporary art That is practitioners now can be seen to be using whatever systems of distribution and display are available to them as their creative mediums The two central arguments are first that any understanding of what art is will always be underwritten by a related view of what a human being is and second that these both have a particular character in late capitalism or as is named here the Age of Dispersion The book will be of interest to scholars and students working in art history contemporary art studio art and theories of systems and networks

Almost nothing Anna Dezeuze, 2016-12-21 What does an assemblage made out of crumpled newspaper have in common with an empty room in which the lights go on and off every five seconds This book argues that they are both examples of a precarious art that flourished from the late 1950s to the first decade of the twenty first century in light of a growing awareness of the individual's fragile existence in capitalist society Focusing on comparative case studies drawn from European North and South American practices this study maps out a network of similar concerns and practices while outlining its evolution from the 1960s to the beginning of the twenty first century This book will provide students and amateurs of contemporary art and culture with new insights into contemporary art practices and the critical issues that they raise concerning the material status of the art object the role of the artist in society and the relation between art and everyday life
