ENGLISH DESCRIPTION This definitive biography reveals the complicated inner life of the founding father of the Protestant Reformation whose intellectual assault on Catholicism ushered in a century of upheaval that transformed Christianity and changed the course of world history On October 31 1517 so the story goes a shy monk named Martin Luther nailed a piece of paper to the door of the Castle Church in the university town of Wittenberg The ideas contained in these Ninety five Theses which boldly challenged the Catholic Church spread like wildfire Within two months they were known all over Germany So powerful were Martin Luther's broadsides against papal authority that they polarized a continent and tore apart the very foundation of Western Christendom Luther's ideas inspired upheavals whose consequences we live with today But who was the man behind the Ninety five Theses Lyndal Roper's magisterial new biography goes beyond Luther's theology to investigate the inner life of the religious reformer who has been called the last medieval man and the first modern one Here is a full blooded portrait of a revolutionary thinker who was at his core deeply flawed and full of contradictions Luther was a brilliant writer whose biblical translations had a lasting impact on the German language Yet he was also a strident fundamentalist whose scathing rhetorical attacks threatened to alienate those he might persuade He had a colorful even impish personality and when he left the monastery to get married to spite the Devil he explained he wooed and wed an ex nun But he had an ugly side too When German peasants rose up against the nobility Luther urged the aristocracy to slaughter them He was a ferocious anti Semite and a virulent misogynist even as he argued for liberated human sexuality within marriage A distinguished historian of early modern Europe Lyndal Roper looks deep inside the heart of this singularly complex figure The force of Luther's personality she argues had enormous historical effects both good and ill By bringing us closer than ever to the man himself she opens up a new vision of the Reformation and the world it created and draws a fully three dimensional portrait of its founder Praise for Martin Luther A smart accessible authoritative biography of one of the most dynamic figures in European history Here he stands never more vocal more controversial more compelling Hilary Mantel Luther leaps off the page in a vivid array of colours The work of one of the most imaginative and pioneering historians of our generation The Guardian It's difficult to see how anyone could improve on this superb life of Luther Lyndal Roper Regius professor of history at Oxford University has an extraordinary talent for making complex theological issues not just clear but entertaining Luther jumps from these pages with immense vitality as if his exploits occurred last week Theological history often seems monochrome This is Luther in colour The Times Enlightening a formidably learned biography Roper's approach is avowedly new The Sunday Times Beautifully written It is certainly among the most interesting provocative and original biographies of Luther to appear in recent years one that tackles head on the challenge of entering into and exploring the interior life of its subject Anyone seriously interested in one of the most influential figures of the last half millennium will need to make time to read this one Literary Review Martin Luther Martin Tangely, 2003 Martin Luther only meant for his 95 Theses to spark debate and hopefully a few changes in the Catholic Church Instead they changed the face of world history sparking decades of violent religious conflict and war amongst the nations and peoples of Europe Luther was a Catholic cleric whose chief problem with the Church was the practice of selling indulgences Church leaders though would not sanction debate with him and excommunicated Luther His cause was then championed by varied European royals who saw the chance to break from the Catholic Church and take control of valuable land As the Protestants separated from the Catholic Church they also split from each other into denominations like Lutheran Anglican and Calvinist All of this was more than Luther sought or likely even wanted But the Reformation remains a seminal moment in Western indeed world history and Martin Luther is its father This book presents an overview of Martin Luther s life and his impact on Christianity and the face of the world Following that is a list of carefully selected citations of literature about Luther and the religious change he spawned Easy access is finally provided via author title and subject indexes *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Kellerman,R. Alden Smith,Carl P.E. Springer,2022-12-05 Scholarship has tended to assume that Luther was uninterested in the Greek and Latin classics given his promotion of the German vernacular and his polemic against the reliance upon Aristotle in theology But as Athens and Wittenberg demonstrates Luther was shaped by the classical education he had received and integrated it into his writings He could quote Epicurean poetry to non Epicurean ends he could employ

Aristotelian logic to prove the limits of philosophy's role in theology This volume explores how Luther and early Protestantism especially Lutheranism continued to draw from the classics in their quest to reform the church In particular it examines how early Protestantism made use of the philosophy and poetry from classical antiquity Contributors to this volume Joseph Herl Jane Schatkin Hettrick E J Hutchinson Jack D Kilcrease E Christian Kopf John G Nordling Piergiacomo Petrioli Eric G Phillips Richard J Serina Jr R Alden Smith Carl P E Springer Manfred Svensson William P Weaver and Daniel Zager

Luther,2011 Martin Luther viewed the family as the core of education He considered education obtained from schooling as secondary The head of the family is responsible for the religious instruction of his children and servants for the service of God In everything else the commandment of order and discipline of the family is a mundane matter outside of the church Luther insists that the academic schools be replaced with Christian schools The schools in the Middle Ages had a religious temperament The students participated in the worship services or intervened with their singing The school of Reform establishes the teachings of catechism and of the Bible
