Many of the observations chronicled in the following pages were made during a long residence upon a coral reef or atoll some while swimming under water along the bristling coral banks that formed a characteristic feature of our tropical home and others are the memories of many practical collecting tours in various localities in Search of Specimens valued by the lover of nature The chapters relate to widely different subjects the strange forms of animal life found in various parts of the world that from the striking evidence of design in their structure and ways are deemed the marvelous productions of the
