Introduction to Paralegal Studies Linda L Edwards,2002 Introduction to Paralegal Studies utilizes a storytelling approach that provides a context in which students can assimilate and organize new concepts The student is taken from the introduction to the client to the final collection of the judgment in the chronology that would normally occur in litigation The text explores practical considerations such as docketing timelines office politics setting up and organizing files timekeeping and asset assessment Strategic decisions are also explored as they arise naturally in the discovery process motion practice trial and judgment collection The text contains a number of entertaining forums in which to practice legal terminology and integrate legal concepts such as A Trip To The Movies which provides questions related to popular law related movies

Everybody's ,1924     The Dry Well Marlin Barton,2001 This collection brings together the author s twelve best stories all set in the same small Southern community in Alabama The world of these stories covers five generations of one particular family named Anderson and the range in time is from 1865 to the present These stories are about grace in the lives of ordinary men and women The plot lines are infinitely various but so delicate that they have eluded some of the subtlest writers As was once said about the writing of Peter Taylor a master of the short story Marlin Barton s writing is as clear as a fine pane of glass Correctly described as unobtrusive this style is so simple and powerful that he seems scarcely to be exercising his craft This is the perfect definition of a virtuoso As readers will find there is virtuosity aplenty in The Dry Well
