Marxism And Deconstruction A Critical Articulation:

Marxism and Deconstruction Michael Ryan, 2019-12-01 Originally published in 1982 Aside from Jacques Derrida's own references to the possible articulation between deconstruction and Marxism the relationship between the two has remained largely unexplored In Marxism and Deconstruction Michael Ryan examines that multifaceted relationship but not through a mere comparison of two distinct and inviolable entities Instead he looks at both with an eye to identifying their common elements and reweaving them into a new theory of political practice To accomplish his task Ryan undertakes a detailed comparison of deconstruction and Marxism relating deconstruction to the dialectical tradition in philosophy and demonstrating how deconstruction can be used in the critique of ideology He is a forceful critic of both the politics of deconstruction and the metaphysical aspect of Marxism as seen from a deconstructionist perspective Besides offering the first book length study of Derrida in this context Ryan makes the first methodic attempt by an American scholar to apply deconstruction to domains beyond literature He proposes a deconstructive Marxism one lacking the metaphysical underpinnings of conservative scientific Marxist theory and employing deconstructive analysis both for Marxist political criticism and to further current anti metaphysical developments within Marxism Marxism and Deconstruction is an innovative and controversial contribution to the fields of literary criticism philosophy and political science Deconstruction and Marxism, 1982

Theories of Play and Postmodern Fiction Brian Edwards, 2013-05-13 Drawing on developments in critical theory and postmodernist fiction this study makes an important contribution to the appreciation of playforms in language texts and cultural practices Tracing trajectories in theories of play and game and with particular attention to the writings of Nietzsche Wittgenstein Bakhtin and Derrida the author argues that the concept of play provides perspectives on language and communication processes useful both for analysis of literary texts and also for understanding the interactive nature of constructions of knowledge Exploring manifestations of game and play throughout the history of Western culture from Plato to Pynchon this study traces developments in 20th century cultural and literary theory of ideas about play in the writings of Johan Huizinga Roger Caillois Jacques Ehrmann Bernard Suits James Hans Mihai Spariosu and Robert Rawdon Wilson The author emphasizes post structuralist developments with specific attention to deconstruction and reception theory and argues that deconstruction makes the most significant recent contribution to play theory in its application to language and to literature The work also explores the modes and effects of playforms in particular examples of postmodernist fiction With attention to major works from Thomas Pynchon Gravity's Rainbow John Barth LETTERS Robert Kroetsch What the Crow Said Angela Carter Nights at the Circus and Peter Carey Illywhacker Edwards acknowledges and deconstructs such basic oppositions as play and seriousness fiction and truth difference and identity to explore the literature's cultural political significance Seeking to affirm the fiction's continuing social relevance the readings presented in this book place play irresistibly at the heartland of language meaning and culture

Contractarian Liberal Ethics and the Theory of Rational Choice Jung Soon Park, 1992 This book investigates the relationship between morality and rationality in the context of historical and present day contractarian ethics From Rawls to Gauthier contractarians have attempted to construct their methodological foundations on the theory of rational choice Through a careful study of the nature and limits of the theory of rational choice Jung Soon Park argues that the theory cannot provide the reliable foundations for contractarian liberal ethics Consequently the author takes seriously the question about the future of contractarian liberal ethics Is it the end or can there be a transformation The Post-human Condition
