An Analysis of C.S. Lewis's Mere Christianity Mark Scarlata,2017-07-05 C S Lewis s Mere Christianity is a perfect example of one of the most effective aspects of critical thinking skills the use of reasoning to build a strong logical argument Lewis originally wrote the book as a series of radio talks given from 1942 1944 at the height of World War II The talks were designed to lay out the most basic tenets of Christianity for listeners and to use these to make a logical argument for Christian belief and Christian ethics While Lewis was not an academically trained theologian or philosopher specializing instead in literature his own experience of converting from atheism to Christianity along with his wide reading and incisive questioning power a charming but persuasive argument for his own beliefs Whether or not one agrees with Lewis s arguments or shares his faith Mere Christianity exemplifies one of the most useful aspects of good reasoning accessibility When using reasoning to construct a convincing argument it is crucial that your audience follow you and Lewis was a master at constructing well organised arguments that are immediately understandable to readers The beautifully written Mere Christianity is a masterclass in cogently walking an audience through an elegant and well thought through piece of reasoning

S. Lewis' Mere Christianity* Bob Johnson,2013-06-27 C S Lewis Mere Christianity has been read by millions of people over the last six decades Not surprisingly it is most popular with Christians who see it as demonstrating the reasonableness of Christianity However if we follow the advice of philosophy and objectively apply our innate God given reason to the arguments Lewis puts forward for Christianity we soon see they are painfully lacking No matter how hard Lewis attempts to unite innate God given reason and Christianity he fails An Answer to C S Lewis Mere Christianity helps the reader to realize not only the absurdity of Lewis arguments but it points the reader to a much more profound appreciation of God and of God s gift to us of innate reason This book is a great instrument to use to help you make the very important and real distinction between God and religion wanted to teach his seven year old daughter about being part of the Christian Family To that end he considered the catechisms used by various denominations and found them all lacking for his purpose They all struck Ren to be a series of stilted questions with answers that a child would never give except for rote memorization which didn't strike him as very natural The inadequacy of such catechisms for teaching the Christian Faith to children today is highlighted by some very sobering statistics One study has shown that 40-50% of children from good families and involved in youth groups will drift away from God after they leave high school Other researchers say as many as 80% of such believers will drift away from God by the age 29 As someone who's actually been tested by the heathen pagan atheist masses Ren believes the larger part of the problem is that the kids today just aren't being prepared to execute St Peter's exhortation to be ready with answers for the reason for our hope 1Pt 3:15 The issue is an unhealthy reliance on assumptions assumptions that those outside forces won't necessarily share For instance how do we know God exists Because the Bible tells me so isn't going to cut it when today's kids run into skeptics that will tear such reasoning to philosophical shreds So then Ren took it upon himself to come up with a more structured approach to his daughter's upbringing in the Christian Family Over the course of three months he had a series of thirteen 5-10 minute conversations with her about God and Church Ren used C.S. Lewis' approach to explaining Christianity because he wants his daughter to have it written upon her heart Heb 10:16 and not just a bunch of regurgitated memory verses As a result a book is called Mere Christianity For Kids as a nod to C.S. Lewis It is Ren's fervent hope that all readers adult and child learn something here as God desires for everyone to genuinely seek to know him better and his will for us
