Merleau-Ponty: Perception, Structure, Language: a Collection of Essays John Sallis,1981 Merleau-Ponty's Last Vision Douglas Beck Low,2000 Few writers unfinished works are considered among their most important but such is the case with Merleau Ponty s The Visible and the Invisible What exists of it is a mere beginning yet it bridged modernism and postmodernism in philosophy Low uses material from some of Merleau Ponty s later works as the basis for completion Working from this material and the philosopher s own outline Low presents how this important work would have looked had Merleau Ponty lived to complete it The Passionate Mind of Maxine Greene William F. Pinar,2005-08-08 Maxine Greene is the most important philosopher of education in the United States today The author of Teacher as Stranger 1973 Landscapes of Learning 1978 Dialectic of Freedom 1988 and Releasing the Imagination 1995 Greene has influenced tens of thousands of teachers in North America as well as her colleagues in philosophy of education teacher education and curriculum studies While widely cited Greene has not until now been the subject of sustained scholarly analysis and investigation William F Pinar has organized a systematic study of Greene s contribution from several points of view studies of the four books studies of the intellectual and aesthetic influences upon her theory and her influence on the various specializations within the broad field of education the teaching of English arts education philosophy of education curriculum studies religious education cognitive theory and theory of teaching The book opens and concludes with Maxine Greene s own autobiographical statements Phenomenology 2005. Volume 3: Selected Essays from Euro-Mediterranean Area, part 2 Copoeru, Ion,Sepp, Hans Rainer,2007-01-01 The Sense of Space David Morris,2012-02-01 The Sense of Space brings together space and body to show that space is a plastic environment charged with meaning that reflects the distinctive character of human embodiment in the full range of its moving perceptual emotional expressive developmental and social capacities Drawing on the philosophies of Merleau Ponty and Bergson as well as contemporary psychology to develop a renewed account of the moving perceiving body the book suggests that our sense of space ultimately reflects our ethical relations to other people and to the places we inhabit Maurice Merleau-Ponty Joan Nordquist,2000 Subject Catalog, 1982 Library of Congress,1982 Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1982 National Union Catalog ,1983 National Union Catalog, 1982 ,1983 Journal of Indian Council of Philosophical Research ,1995 Art and Institution Rajiv Kaushik,2011-06-12 Art and Institution examines how for Merleau Ponty the work of art opens up without conceptualizing the event of being Rajiv Kaushik treats Merleau Ponty s renderings of the artwork specifically in his later writings during the period ranging from 1952 1961 as a path into the being that precedes phenomenology Replete with references to Merleau Ponty s reflections on Matisse C zanne Proust and others and featuring Kaushik s own original reflections on various artworks this book is guided by the notion that art does not iterate the findings of phenomenology so much as it allows phenomenology to finally discover what as a matter of principle it seeks the very foundation of experience that is not itself available to thought Kaushik is thus concerned with the ways in which the work of art restores the principle of institution prior to the intentional structures of consciousness so that phenomenology may settle questions concerning ontological difference the origination of significance and the relationship between interiority and exteriority Philosophic Classics Forrest E.
