brother's best friend and hockey superstar Cam Collier is in town for the holidays. It doesn't take long for Hannah to imagine him reading to kids at the local library and all that money pouring in. Sidelined with his second concussion, Cam takes the opportunity to spend Christmas with his family. He's barely in town twenty-four hours when Hannah Gallagher hits him up to do a charity event and Cam knows he must decline. Of course Hannah doesn't understand his reasons because he's holding onto a secret that he's never shared with anyone. Lennox, Chris May, 2021-11-16 Introduction by Richard Carpenter. The definitive biography of one of the most enduring and endeared recording artists in history, the Carpenters, is told for the first time from the perspective of Richard Carpenter through more than 100 hours of exclusive interviews and some 200 photographs from Richard's personal archive, many never published. After becoming multimillion-selling Grammy-winning superstars with their 1970 breakthrough hit "They Long to Be Close to You," Richard and Karen Carpenter would win over millions of fans worldwide with a record-breaking string of hits including "We've Only Just Begun," "Top of the World," and "Yesterday Once More." By 1975, success was taking its toll. Years of jam-packed work schedules, including hundreds of concert engagements, proved to be just too much for the Carpenters to keep the hits coming and ultimately to keep the music playing at all. However, Richard and Karen never took their adoring public or each other for granted. In Carpenters: The Musical Legacy, Richard Carpenter tells his story for the first time. With candor, heart, and humor, he sheds new light on the Carpenters' trials and triumphs, work that remains the gold standard for melodic pop. This beautifully illustrated definitive biography, with exclusive interviews and never-before-seen photographs, is a must-have for any Carpenters fan. latter the moment she meets Dylan Mahoney she can't help but fall for him. The only problem is Dylan has always had very definite plans for his future and falling in love wasn't a part of those plans. Rock Henderson needs a wife and fast. His dying mother's last wish is to leave this world knowing her son is blissfully married and producing grandchildren. It's just a small lie to make her eternally happy. One he doesn't think he'll have to make good on until Zelda shows up the week before Christmas with her nurse and her twenty-pound tabby cat. With his ex-fiancee long gone and his wheelchair-bound mother sitting in the living room of his penthouse demanding to meet his wife, he's desperate and hard-pressed to find a stand-in on such short notice. That is until he remembers his neighbor in 601E. Kimberly Jo Stratton is looking forward to a hard-earned vacation the week before Christmas. Her calendar is filled with last-minute shopping, lunch dates, holiday parties, and catching up on old friends. There's just one problem: she needs to find someone ASAP to cast the tie-breaking vote to the proposed bylaws change of her condominium association, which is a total ban on all animals. If that change goes through, Kim and many of her closest neighbors will have to move. They're not going to give up their furry children. Kim and Rock strike a deal: Kim will spend the week as Rock's wife in return for his vote. It seems like a fool-proof plan. That is until Kim's Chihuahua tangles with Zelda's tabby. Zelda's health seems to take a sudden turn for the better, and Zelda's nurse does more pouting than nursing except when she's flirting with Rock. In the midst of it all, Kim and Rock discover that there is such a thing as love under the mistletoe.
