

Jeremiah's message to the Jews

Northern army is coming! Change before the judgment begins! Then it will be too late!

Jeremiah began this message during Josiah's reformation years!

Once the Babylonians arrived in 4th of Jehoiakim, Jeremiah was vindicated & his message changed to: "surrender & go to Babylon"

His message still applies to us today! Now is the time! When Jesus returns it will be too late!

prophet Jeremiah and King Josiah were born at the end of the longest darkest reign in Judah's history Human sacrifice and practice of the black arts were just two features of the wickedness that filled Jerusalem from one end to the other with innocent blood As outspoken prophet and reforming king these two men gave their country its finest opportunity of renewal and its last hope of surviving as the kingdom of David The book of Jeremiah is full of turmoil and national tragedy the story of key people like Baruch Gedaliah and Ebedmelech the Ethiopian and the drama of rediscovering the forgotten book of Mosaic law National events interweave with the lives of individuals the rediscovered book of God's law transforms Josiah Jeremiah and the future of the world Derek Kidner with careful attention to the text reveals its startling relevance to our own troubled time The Message of Jeremiah for the Men of Today, 1942 Jeremiah James Reapsome, 2010-12-01 Readers will gain a firsthand look at the peaks and valleys of this prophet's life and how it connects to Christian living today

Follow Dr Jeremiah through the letter of Philippians in a chapter by chapter study that will help you understand what it meant to the people at the time it was written and what it means to Christians today. The believers in Philippi were experiencing both concern for Paul while he was in prison and spiritual discouragement. Paul wrote this loving letter to encourage them in their faith and to remind them that there was a greater future in store for him and for them outside this world. Paul even admits the tension he feels between living to continue sharing the gospel and dying so he can be with Christ. This mindset allowed Paul to remain joyful in the midst of suffering, and he knew the same would be true of the Philippi believers as well. The Message Prayerful Reading Bible: Jeremiah & Lamentations (Softcover, Blue) Eugene H. Peterson, 2021-09 Slow Down and Connect with God. The Bible in contemporary language is placed here alongside the ancient Christian practice of lectio divina or sacred reading. You'll enter the text of Scripture more fully than ever before and come out of each prayerful reading with a fresh encounter with our loving God, ready to live in the way of Jesus. A perfect resource for your devotional quiet time. This Old Testament Bible portion includes the complete books of Jeremiah and Lamentations. It introduces readers to the timeless practice of lectio divina and provides guided reflection. There is also ample space for journaling your observations, reflections, and prayers. Here are the steps of lectio divina to help you slow down and meet God. Stop. Take a moment to stop and prepare to encounter God. Read. Do a first reading and make observations of the text. Ponder. Read the text again and meditate on its meaning. Pray. Begin a conversation with God about this Scripture. Reflect. Take note of what this time with God has brought to the surface for you. Live. Consider how this time with God translates into our life with God.

Romans Dr. David Jeremiah, 2020-02-25 Jesus is our salvation. Follow Dr Jeremiah through the book of Romans in a chapter by chapter study that will help you understand what it meant to the people at the time it was written and what it means to Christians today.

The apostle Paul makes his appearance in the Bible as an ambitious Pharisee who is determined to destroy the early church. But his religious world comes crashing down when he meets the risen Jesus on the road to Damascus. Paul is never the same and soon he is traveling across the world to spread the gospel. In his letter to a church in Rome, he outlines the central truths and doctrines of the Christian faith. Romans reads like a first-century course in theology culminating in the incredible truth that God has made a way through the sacrifice of Christ for all to find salvation.
