

A close-up portrait of a woman with dark hair, wearing a light-colored headscarf and a dark, draped garment. She is looking down with a somber expression. The lighting is soft and directional, coming from the upper left, casting gentle shadows on her face and highlighting the texture of her clothing. The background is a warm, textured wash of light brown and beige tones.

group view it as a lament of the people before the Lord that is the people's repentance. However in the third paper in book I expose the pericope as portraying instead God's people's fake repentance thus advocating for the views of some other scholars.

THE ULTIMATE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN THE RIGHTEOUS AND THE WICKED: AN EXEGESIS OF MALACHI 3:19-20 After God has rebuked his people for various sins in Malachi 1:3, chapter 4 shows the future retributions of both the wicked and the righteous. In 4:1-3, 3:19-21 in the Hebrew Bible, God speaks of these retributions as the ultimate difference between the wicked and the righteous. In the fourth paper of this book, I seek to understand what this ultimate difference is all about before drawing subsequent conclusions and recommendations.
