The Messenger Karl Evanzz, 2001-01-09 Drawn from recently declassified FBI files and interviews with family members and former apostles The Messenger renders a daring portrait of one of African American history's most controversial leaders In this explosive biography investigative journalist Karl Evanzz recounts the multidimensional life of a semiliterate refugee from the Jim Crow South who became the influential founder of the Nation of Islam Considered the Prophet by his followers and a threat to national security by J Edgar Hoover Elijah Muhammad moved four million African Americans to convert to his heterodox version of Islam and inspired the lives of Malcolm X Muhammad Ali Jesse Jackson and Louis Farrakhan But his increasingly insatiable hunger for power ultimately led Elijah Muhammad down a path of corruption ultimately betraying his teachings and his devoted believers by womanizing fathering thirteen illegitimate children and abetting in the murders of those who criticized him not least of whom his chief disciple Malcolm X

Killing the Messenger Thomas

Peele, 2012-02-07 When a nineteen year old member of a Black Muslim cult assassinated Oakland newspaper editor Chauncey Bailey in 2007 the most shocking killing of a journalist in the United States in thirty years the question was Why I just wanted to be a good soldier a strong soldier the killer told police A strong soldier for whom Killing the Messenger is a searing work of narrative nonfiction that explores one of the most blatant attacks on the First Amendment and free speech in American history and the small Black Muslim cult that carried it out Award winning investigative reporter Thomas Peele examines the Black Muslim movement from its founding in the early twentieth century by a con man who claimed to be God to the height of power of the movement's leading figure Elijah Muhammad to how the great grandson of Texas slaves reinvented himself as a Muslim leader in Oakland and built the violent cult that the young gunman eventually joined Peele delves into how charlatans exploited poor African Americans with tales from a religion they falsely claimed was Islam and the years of bloodshed that followed from a human sacrifice in Detroit to police shootings of unarmed Muslims to the horrible backlash of racism known as the zebra murders and finally to the brazen killing of Chauncey Bailey to stop him from publishing a newspaper story Peele establishes direct lines between the violent Black Muslim organization run by Yusuf Bey in Oakland and the evangelicalism of the early prophets and messengers of the Nation of Islam Exposing the roots of the faith Peele examines its forerunner the Moorish Science Temple of America which in the 1920s and 30s preached to migrants from the South living in Chicago and Detroit ghettos that blacks were the world's master race tricked into slavery by white devils In spite of the fantastical claims and hatred at its core the Nation of Islam was able to build a following by appealing to the lack of identity common in slave descendants In Oakland Yusuf Bey built a cult through a business called Your Black Muslim Bakery beating and raping dozens of women he claimed were his wives and fathering more than forty children Yet Bey remained a prominent fixture in the community and police looked the other way as his violent soldiers ruled the streets An enthralling narrative that combines a rich historical account with gritty urban reporting Killing the Messenger is a mesmerizing story of how swindlers and con men abused the tragedy of racism and created a radical religion of bloodshed and fear that culminated in a journalist s murder THOMAS PEELE is a digital investigative reporter for the Bay Area News Group and the Chauncey Bailey Project He is also a lecturer at the University of California Berkeley Graduate School of Journalism His many honors include the Investigative Reporters and Editors Tom Renner Award for his reporting on organized crime and the McGill Medal for Journalistic Courage He lives in Northern California

Down in the Chapel Joshua Dubler,2013-08-13 A bold and provocative interpretation of one of the most religiously vibrant places in America a state penitentiary Baraka Al Teddy and Sayyid four black men from South Philadelphia two Christian and two Muslim are serving life sentences at Pennsylvania s maximum security Graterford Prison All of them work in Graterford s chapel a place that is at once a sanctuary for religious contemplation and an arena for disputing the workings of God and man Day in day out everything is in its twisted way rather ordinary And then one of them disappears Down in the Chapel tells the story of one week at Graterford Prison We learn how the men at Graterford pass their time care for themselves and commune with their makers We observe a variety of Muslims Protestants Catholics and others at prayer and in study and song And we listen in as an interloping scholar of religion tries to make sense of it all When prisoners turn to God they are often scorned as con artists who fake their piety or pitied as wretches who cling to faith because faith is all they have left Joshua Dubler goes beyond these stereotypes to show the religious life of a prison in all its complexity One part prison procedural one part philosophical investigation Down in the Chapel explores the many uses prisoners make of their religions and weighs the circumstances that make these uses possible Gritty and visceral meditative and searching it is an essential study of American religion in the age of mass incarceration    "A Nation Can Rise No Higher Than Its Women" Bayyinah Sharief Jeffries,2009
