Witches, Scientists, Philosophers: Essays and Lectures Robert E. Butts,2013-03-09 Robert E Butts 1928 1997 was a philosopher and historian of science whose central concerns were the distinction between the rational and the irrational He viewed scientific rationality as our major defence against the various conditions that encourage witch hunts and similar outbursts of irrationality with all their attendant pain and terror Butts saw himself as a pragmatic realist combining what he took to be the best aspects of logical empiricism with a historically informed pragmatism deeply appreciative of the methods of science trying to describe a kind of rationality essential in the struggle to preserve human values This volume gathers previously unpublished essays and lectures with some previously published thematically related essays It includes essays and lectures on philosophical aspects of the European witch hunt on scientific rationality and methodology and on the relationships between science and philosophy exhibited in the writings of such historically significant figures as Leibniz D Alembert Hume Kant Carnap and Kuhn

The British and Anglo-Irish Thing-Essay from 1701 to 2021 Daniel Schneider,2023-09-29 While the it narrative the thing poem and thing theatre have been around for some time the essay which is often considered literature s fourth genre is still lacking its thing subgenre Yet particularly British and Anglo Irish literature display a long albeit so far implicit tradition of texts that can be categorised as thing essays Starting with Jonathan Swift s Meditation upon a Broomstick 1701 and continuing until today these texts draw broader insights from the contemplation of a material item of daily life This book provides the first theoretical conceptualisation of this genre Bringing elements from essay studies and the New Materialisms together it shows why the essay lends itself particularly well to literarisations of the personal relationships that people foster to everyday objects While the idiosyncrasies of each essay show the versatility of thing essays the study also seeks to unearth changing attitudes towards things and thus towards people s material surroundings in general throughout time In order to account for such synchronic and diachronic differences in thing essays this study develops a typology of three modes via which things can be approached essayistically In the book s second part this framework will be employed in close readings and historicisations of 14 thing essays from 1701 until 2021 Ranging from satire to sentimental writing from religion to consumerism from class to gender differences from feelings of nationality to exoticism from the French Revolution to Freud and from art to everyday life the stylistic and thematic broadness of these thing essays ultimately shows the multifarious connections between human life and materiality

Essays in Interactionist Sociology Harvey A. Farberman,2019-03-15 Essays in Interactionist Sociology contains a selection of contributions spanning five decades that advance the theory organization and research of the interactionist tradition Harvey A Farberman professor emeritus of social welfare policy at Stony Brook University wrote the fourteen essays twelve of which were published in

Languages of Belief and Early Sociology in

Nineteenth-Century France Michiel Van Dam,2024-09-27 This book presents a new reading of the history of French social science and religion through an investigation of early sociology s techniques for narrating the category of belief The author argues that by looking at the history of social sciences in this manner we gain a deeper understanding of both our present debates on post secularity as well as our modernist past both of which were thoroughly shaped by their reflections and critiques on the notion of belief yet failed to enter into any sort of meaningful communication with each other This book seeks to rectify this failure by introducing the concept of belief languages an anthropological framework designed to historicize different discussions on belief and allow for their comparative description and analysis
