Metamorphoses Bks 13 15 Classical Texts:

Secretis bene uiuere siluis Stratis Kyriakidis, Charilaos N. Michalopoulos, 2024-06-25 This volume presents essays written in honour of Robert Maltby Emeritus Professor of Latin at the University of Leeds It offers a rich collection of modern scholarship covering a wide range of literary genres in Latin literature spanning from Augustan times up to the Italian Renaissance The value of this volume lies in its inclusion of new interpretations of well discussed texts from the past shedding light on texts that have recently garnered scholarly attention and sparked lively discussions Fifteen essays reflect the main areas of scholarship and interests of the honoree in a variety of Roman literary genres with special focus on the Corpus Tibullianum but also on etymologising and textual criticism The collection is not exclusively intended for classicists historical linguists and textual critics By providing insightful discussions and fresh interpretations of themes and issues in Latin literature from a contemporary perspective it also appeals to anyone interested in Mediterranean studies the socio cultural aspects of literature and comparative literature

Ovid Katharina Volk, 2011-06-24 This book provides a unique and accessible introduction to the complete works of Ovid Using a thematic approach Volk lays out what we know about Ovid's life presents the author's works within their poetic genres and discusses central Ovidian themes The first general introduction to Ovid written in English in over 20 years offering the very latest Ovidian scholarship Discusses the complete works of Ovid Accessible writing and a thematic approach make this text ideal for a broad audience A current revival in Ovid makes this timely edition highly valuable

A Radical's Books Michael Cyril William Hunter, 1999 The library owned by Samuel Jeake of Rye nonconformist and local activist was one of the most remarkable of its time It is of particular importance in that relatively little information has hitherto been available about the ownership of books in the English provinces or the reading habits of intellectuals who like Jeake were outside London and university circles from which most surviving libraries have come down to us The collection of some 1500 volumes includes an extraordinary assemblage of radical pamphlets from the English Revolution alongside works of theology literature scholarship and science Other books reflect astrological and magical interests and the collection also includes a medical library Jeake's library catalogue published here gives much information about titles that are now lost about the penetration of foreign books into provincial England and about book prices The introduction places Jeake's collection in context and makes a significant contribution to the history of the book in the early modern period appendices list surviving volumes from the library and give a complete list of the Jeake manuscripts now in Rye Museum MICHAEL HUNTER is Professor of History at Birkbeck College University of London GILES MANDELBROTE is a Curator British Collections 1501 1800 at the British Library RICHARD OVENDEN is Deputy Head Rare Books Division of the National Library of Scotland NIGEL SMITH is Reader in English at the University of Oxford

Gibson Livy, Titus Livius, 1891 Generic Interfaces in Latin Literature Theodore D. Papanghelis, Stephen J. Harrison, Stavros Frangoulidis, 2013-03-22 Neither older empiricist positions that genre is an abstract concept useless for the study of individual works of literature nor the recent post modern reluctance to subject literary production to any kind of classification seem to have stilled the discussion on the various aspects of genre in classical literature. Having moved from more or less essentialist and or prescriptive positions towards a more dynamic conception of the generic model research on genre is currently considering pushing beyond the boundaries impurity instability enrichment and genre bending. The aim of this volume is to raise questions of such generic mobility in Latin literature. The papers explore ways in which works assigned to a particular generic area play host to formal and substantive elements associated with different or even opposing genres. Assess literary works which seem to challenge perceived generic norms highlight along the literary historical and political backgrounds to dislocations of the generic map

A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic Richard Armstrong, Alexandra Lianeri, 2025-04-01 The first volume of its kind to integrate trends in Translation Studies with Classical Reception Studies. A Companion to the Translation of Classical Epic provides a comprehensive and wide ranging account of key debates and case studies centered on the translation of Greek and Latin epics. Rather than situating translation studies as a complementary field or an aspect of classical reception the Companion offers a systematic framework for adapting and incorporating translation studies fully into classical studies. Its many chapters elaborate how translation is a central element in the epic's reception trajectories across the globe and addresses theoretical and methodological concerns arising from this conjunction. The Companion does not just provide a comprehensive overview of the translation theories it covers but also offers fresh insights into theoretical and methodological issues currently at the top of the interdisciplinary agenda of scholars studying the global routes of ancient epic. In its sections leading classicists, translation theorists, classical reception scholars, and cultural historians from Europe and North and South America reconfigure questions this research faces today highlighting methods for an integrated approach. It explores how this integrated perspective responds to key challenges in the study of the epic's reception emphasizing topics of temporality, gender, agency, community, target language, politics, and material production. A special section also features detailed dialogues with active translators such as Emily Wilson, Stanley Lombardo, and Susanna Braund who speak extensively and frankly about their work This is a key volume for all students and scholars who want to engage with research reflecting the contemporary agenda in classical reception translation studies and the study of epic in its global literary and cultural routes The Works of P. Virgilius Maro Virgil, Levi Hart, V. R. Osborn, 1882 The English Catalogue of Books Sampson Low, 1901 Volumes for 1898 1968 include a directory of publishers
