Metaphorical Eye:

Perception and Metaphor Qin Xiugui,Tie Yi,2021-07-28 Cognitive linguists believe that metaphors are prevalent in human thought while metaphorical structures are reflected at the linguistic level Therefore analysing extensive language data can aid in revealing the metaphorical mappings of embodied experience with the senses of vision hearing smell taste touch and temperature This volume seeks to discover the similarities and differences between the metaphorical systems of the English and Chinese languages Adopting a comparative view the authors examine the semantic extensions of perception words in English and Chinese in order to reveal the metaphorical scope of each sense and the metaphorical system behind it They argue that the metaphorical systems of the senses not only help us understand and use conventionalised metaphorical expressions but also allow us to create novel expressions The findings also unveil how abstract concepts are constructed via cognitive mechanisms such as image schema and metaphor This title is a useful reference for scholars and students who are interested in cognitive linguistics comparative linguistics and the philosophy of language

Lawrence     The Law Multiple Irene van Oorschot, 2021-03-04 In the field of socio legal studies or law and society scholarship it is rare to find empirically rich and conceptually sophisticated understandings of actual legal practice This book in contrast connects the conceptual and the empirical the abstract and the concrete and in doing so shows the law to be an irreducibly social material and temporal practice Drawing on cutting edge work in the social study of knowledge it grapples with conceptual and methodological questions central to the field how and where judgment empirically takes place how and where facts are made and how researchers might study these local and concrete ways of judging and knowing Drawing on an ethnographic study of how narratives and documents particularly case files operate within legal practices this book's unique and innovative approach consists of rearticulating the traditional boundaries separating judgment from knowledge urging us to rethink the way truths are made within law Handbook of Semiotics Winfried Nöth, 1990-09-22 History and Classics of Modern Semiotics Sign and Meaning Semiotics Code and the Semiotic Field Language and Language Based Codes From Structuralism to Text Semiotics Schools and Major Figures Text Semiotics The Field Nonverbal Communication Aesthetics and Visual Communication Simile and Metaphor in Greek Poetry from Homer to Aeschylus Arthur Leslie Keith, 1914
