convey the thread of his Universalism which grew out of his Baroque perspective Hagger's literary mystical religious philosophical historical cultural and political Universalist writings are innovative In 60 books he has set out a new approach to literature and identified its fundamental theme as a quest for the One an infinite Reality perceived as Light that alternates with condemnation of social follies and vices presented many mystics illuminations seen the Light as the common essence of all religions created a new philosophy of Universalism that restates the unity of the universe and challenges modern philosophy charted the history of the rise and fall of civilisations reconciled the divisions within world culture and proposed a democratic World State with limited supranational power to abolish war and bring in a Golden Age of peace and prosperity The Essentials of Universalism is a stunning anthology of his writings that covers all aspects of his thinking and range Chosen by the author himself the excerpts include the most important passages in the Hagger canon and are representative of his vast output Since the book was completed Hagger has brought out The Algorithm of Creation the first ever statement of a Theory of Everything and a further development of his Universalism This anthology makes clear the main thrust of his life's work and is required reading for all interested in seeing how his many innovations connect A New Philosophy of Literature Nicholas Hagger, 2012-01-27 In The New Philosophy of Universalism Nicholas Hagger outlined a new philosophy that restates the order within the universe the oneness of humankind and an infinite Reality perceived as Light and its applications in many disciplines including literature In this work of literary Universalism which carries forward the thinking in T S Eliot's Tradition and the Individual Talent and other essays Hagger traces the fundamental theme of world literature which has alternating metaphysical and secular aspects a quest for Reality and immortality and condemnation of social vices in relation to an implied virtue Since classical times these two antithetical traditions have periodically been synthesised by Universalists Hagger sets out the world Universalist literary tradition the writers who from ancient times have based their work on the fundamental Universalist theme These can be found in the Graeco Roman world the Middle Ages and Renaissance in the Baroque Age in the Neoclassical Romantic Victorian and Modernist periods and in the modern time He demonstrates that the Universalist sensibility is a synthesis of the metaphysical and secular traditions and a combination of the Romantic inspired imagination the inner faculty by which Romantic poets approached the Light and the Neoclassical imitative approach to literature which emphasizes social order and proportion a combination found in the Baroque time of the Metaphysical poets and in Victorian and Modernist literature Universalists express their cross disciplinary sensibility in literary epic as did Homer Virgil Dante and Milton and in a number of genres within literature and in history and philosophy Universalist historians claim that every civilisation is nourished by a metaphysical vision that is expressed in its art and when it declines secular materialist writings lose contact with its central vision As Universalist literary works restate the order within the universe reveal metaphysical Being and restore the vision of Reality Hagger excitingly argues that the Universalist sensibility renews Western civilisation's health Literary Universalism is a movement that revives the metaphysical outlook and combines it with the secular materialistic approach to literature that has predominated in recent times It can carry out a revolution in thought and culture and offer a new direction in contemporary literature This work conveys Universalism s impact on literature and should be read by all who have concerns about the sickness and decline of contemporary European Western culture An Introduction to the French Poets Geoffrey Brereton, 2022-07-10 The French poetry of some five centuries is here surveyed in a series of studies of the work and personality of individual poets from Villon to the present day Each chapter is primarily concerned with establishing the literary identity of the poet or poets with whom it deals the work of each is outlined and related to the historical and biographical circumstances in which it was written and its characteristics are then examined critically in terms relevant to the modern reader Comparisons are made between different poets and more general topics such as the concepts of classic and baroque are discussed This book first published in 1956 had become a standard introductory work for students of French poetry and general readers alike For this revised edition originally published in 1973 new chapters have been added on irregular seventeenth century poets and on various modern poets whose work now enables the Surrealist movement to be seen in clearer perspective The bibliography has been revised extensively
