The Restoration of Messianic Hope Brian Main, 2025-06-25 The New Testament portrays the apostles as placing great emphasis on Jesus resurrection in their preaching and teaching This emphasis is often lacking however in contemporary preaching and teaching If Jesus resurrection is to regain the centrality it held in the apostolic age its significance must be understood In this study Brian Main attempts to understand the significance of Jesus resurrection in the Gospel of Matthew Since Jesus resurrection is the proper conclusion of the story in Matthew it is necessary to understand what the story is that it concludes By analyzing the characters settings plot and point of view in Matthew 1 1 4 11 as well as those in the resurrection narrative 28 1 20 Main and his readers come to grasp the expectations that Matthew s audience develops as that story unfolds As readers understand those expectations they will gain a better appreciation of what was at stake when Jesus experienced opposition and therefore of what was restored and guaranteed by his resurrection    The Theme of

Recompense in Matthew's Gospel Blaine Charette, 2015-01-29 Matthew s theology of the Spirit has received scant scholarly attention a regrettable oversight since the evangelist is careful to note that the eschatological redemption described in his Gospel is the direct result of the activity of God s Spirit Matthew s narrative of God s restoring work which begins with Jesus and continues through his followers is informed by even as it extends the larger biblical narrative concerning God s creative redemptive and restorative work at the centre of which stands his Spirit his active presence As the study elaborates upon the broad sweep of Matthew s interest in the Spirit the operation of the Spirit is examined in relation to the three theological categories of christology soteriology and ecclesiology    Human Centered Methods in

Information Systems: Current Research and Practice Clarke, Steve, Lehaney, Brian, 1999-07-01 The 1980s and 1990s have seen a growing interest in research and practice in information systems design and development from a human centered perspective This interest is accelerated by the increase in organizations in which the human resource provides the means to key competitive advantage This book is a compilation of contributed chapters by researchers and practitioners addressing the relationships between human activity organizational issues and technology    Isaiah's Christ in Matthew's Gospel Richard Beaton, 2002-11-14 Matthew s Jesus is typically described as the humble compassionate messiah This 2002 book argues that this is however only half the story Matthew s theologically rich quotation of Isaiah 42 1 4 traditionally considered one of the four servant songs underscores that manifest in Jesus powerful message and deeds particularly his healings and inclusion of the marginalized is the justice that was thought to accompany the arrival of the kingdom of God The study explores modifications to the text form of the Isaianic citations their relationship to the surrounding context and the rhetorical force of the final form It argues that the quotations are bi referential functioning on both a narrative and theological level and also explores the issues surrounding the troublesome extraneous content It arrives at the conclusion that this citation was central to Matthew s understanding of Jesus life and mission All totalled this study offers a refreshing exploration of Matthew s high ethical Christology    Church work, its means and methods James Moorhouse (bp. of Manchester.),1894    Painting the Text Martin O'Kane,2007 In this masterly work Martin O'Kane shows artists at work as readers of the Bible and not simply as illustrators of biblical scenes The painter s eye commonly sees nuances and subtleties of plot and characterization in the biblical text that traditional biblical criticism has overlooked Focussing in fine detail on some well known biblical themes the deception of Isaac the depiction of Isaiah s suffering servant the visit of the Magi and the flight into Egypt among others O'Kane argues that modern readers need the artist s exegetical insight and engagement to appreciate the text fully Ranging widely over mediaeval Renaissance and modern art the author situates his work within the hermeneutical aesthetics of Hans Georg Gadamer Mieke Bal and Paolo Berdini Some 30 images are reproduced in the text

The Teaching of Jesus about the Future According to the Synoptic Gospels Henry Burton Sharman, 1908    The Text of the Gospels in Clement of Alexandria Carl P. Cosaert, 2008 This volume applies the latest methodological advances in patristic textual analysis to explore the nature of the Gospel text used by Clement an early Alexandrian father who wrote extensively on the Christian faith and filled his writings with thousands of biblical citations After examining Clementa TM s life and use of the New Testament writings the book lists all of his quotations of the Four Gospels and compares them to those of other Alexandrian Christians and to the most significant ancient Greek and Latin manuscripts The book demonstrates that the form of the Gospels in Alexandria was in transition at the end of the second century and argues that Clementa TM s Gospel text reveals an Alexandrian influence in John and Matthew and a stronger Western influence in Luke and his citations of Mark 10 Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org
