Martin Brodeur:

Brodeur Martin Brodeur, Damien Cox, 2008-02-28 Martin Brodeur is a giant in the world of hockey. He is the number one goalie in the game today and one of the greatest goaltenders of the modern age. He has been netminder for the New Jersey Devils for 13 years, leading them to three Stanley Cup victories and winning numerous individual awards in the process, including two Vezina trophies. A three-time Olympian for Canada, Brodeur was part of the gold medal winning team at the 2002 Winter Olympics in Salt Lake City. He was in goal when Team Canada captured the 2004 World Cup and has been a part of every major Canadian team since he broke into the NHL in 1992. He is rated as the fourth most popular and recognizable hockey player of all time, after Wayne Gretzky, Bobby Orr, and Mario Lemieux. In Brodeur: Beyond the Crease, the game's best netminder takes a candid, personal look at his career, his sport, the business of hockey, the evolution of the sport, and his journey to the apex of the modern game. It is one man's detailed, unique view of the kaleidoscope of intrigue and competitive chaos that defines today's NHL, a rare opportunity to understand the sport through the eyes of one of the game's most insightful athletes at the height of his abilities. Brodeur: Beyond the Crease traces Brodeur's career, revealing how he became the best, from minor hockey through junior to the NHL and Team Canada. It examines his rich national and personal hockey heritage and the pivotal role his father and others played in his career, as well as his thoughts and insights on being part of the effort that turned the New Jersey Devils around from being what Wayne Gretzky called a Mickey Mouse organization into one of the game's most powerful and successful franchises, being in the crease in 2002 when Canada ended a 50-year gold medal drought at the Olympics, being a Canadian and a Quebecer playing and living in the US, life as a husband and father of four, his love of motorcycles, and the lifestyle of the modern athlete pursuing greatness and sporting records. The best goalies he's ever seen and the best NHL shooters, how he prepares for game day, what it's like to be the wealthiest man ever to play his position, and what it was like to watch $8 million in salary fly out the window during the NHL lockout of 2004-2005. In association with award-winning sports journalist Damien Cox, the top goalie in the game takes us inside the game and beyond to reveal the man behind the mask. The Unbeatable Martin Brodeur Andrew Podnieks, 2009-03-24

If Martin Brodeur isn't the greatest goalie who ever played in the NHL, then who is? He has won three Stanley Cups, played every game of his career for the same team, and is certain to break the three most important records a goalie can possess: most career shutouts, most wins, and most games played. Martin Brodeur is unbeatable and without question, stating that he is the best that the game has ever seen would be impossible to argue. In addition to his NHL silverware, Marty adds an Olympic gold medal to his credit. Brodeur's rise to the top of the NHL was swift. His dominance was enduring, and his level of play year after year has been without equal. Looking at his New Jersey Devils goals against column, it says it all: year after year, they have the lowest number of goals against, and while this is a result of a solid team, both offensively and defensively, it is obvious that the man guarding their net plays a pivotal role in their success and denies today's greatest offensive players access to the net. He
