Martin Von Tours:

Episcopacy, Authority, and Gender Jan Wim Buisman, Marjet Derkx, Peter Raedts, 2015-09-07 What is the base of religious leadership and how has it changed over the centuries This volume presents a range of actors both men and women who in a variety of historical contexts claimed to be the living voices or intermediaries of God The essays analyse the foundation of their authoritative claims and ask how and how far they succeeded in securing obedience from the Christians to whom they addressed their message Religious authority is not understood as a monolithic entity but as something derived from many sources and claims Whatever the national background whether ordained or supposedly appointed through divine intervention the histories of the people portrayed underline the long term manifestations and multifaceted nature of Christian identity

Arianism: Roman Heresy and Barbarian Creed Guido M. Berndt, 2016-04-15 This is the first volume to attempt a comprehensive overview of the evolution of the Arian churches in the Roman world of Late Antiquity and their political importance in the late Roman kingdoms of the 5th 6th centuries ruled by barbarian warrior elites Bringing together researchers from the disciplines of theology history and archaeology and providing an extensive bibliography it constitutes a breakthrough in a field largely neglected in historical studies A polemical term coined by the Orthodox Church the side that prevailed in the Trinitarian disputes of the 4th century C E for its opponents in theology as well as in ecclesiastical politics Arianism has often been seen as too complicated to understand outside the group of theological specialists dealing with it and has therefore sometimes been ignored in historical studies The studies here offer an introduction to the subject grounded in the historical context then examine the adoption of Arian Christianity among the Gothic contingents of the Roman army and its subsequent diffusion in the barbarian kingdoms of the late Roman world
