Di Leo, 2004-01-01 Over the course of the past twenty five years anthologies have shifted from playing a relatively minor role in academic culture to a position of dominance The essays in this collection explore the significant intellectual economic political pedagogical and creative resonance of anthologies through all levels of academic life They show that anthologies have consequences and are grounded in commitments Striving to articulate these consequences and commitments is a priority in higher education today Most of the contributors to this volume are editors of anthologies and they draw on personal experiences to provide a rare glimpse into the economics and logic of anthology publication Their essays illustrate the ways in which editing an anthology involves negotiation and compromise between intellectual ideal and realistic practice On Anthologies includes discussion of a wide range of anthologies used and produced by teachers and scholars Though the emphasis is on literature and theory anthologies the insights in this volume speak to professionals in all areas of academic life Collectively these essays establish the foundation for continuing critical analysis of anthology production and consumption in all disciplines   The Girls of Murder City Douglas Perry,2010-08-05 The true story of the murderesses who became media sensations and inspired the musical Chicago Chicago 1924 There was nothing surprising about men turning up dead in the Second City Life was cheaper than a quart of illicit gin in the gangland capital of the world But two murders that spring were special worthy of celebration So believed Maurine Watkins a wanna be playwright and a girl reporter for the Chicago Tribune the city s hanging paper Newspaperwomen were supposed to write about clubs cooking and clothes but the intrepid Miss Watkins a minister s daughter from a small town zeroed in on murderers instead Looking for subjects to turn into a play she would make Stylish Belva Gaertner and Beautiful Beulah Annan both of whom had brazenly shot down their lovers the talk of the town Love struck men sent flowers to the jail and newly emancipated women sent impassioned letters to the newspapers Soon more than a dozen women preened and strutted on Murderesses Row as they awaited trial desperate for the same attention that was being lavished on Maurine Watkins s favorites In the tradition of Erik Larson s The Devil in the White City and Karen Abbott s Sin in the Second City Douglas Perry vividly captures Jazz Age Chicago and the sensationalized circus atmosphere that gave rise to the concept of the celebrity criminal Fueled by rich period detail and enlivened by a cast of characters who seemed destined for the stage The Girls of Murder City is crackling social history that simultaneously presents the freewheeling spirit of the age and its sober repercussions   The Penalty is Death Marlin Shipman,2002 In 1872 Susan Eberhart was convicted of murder for helping her lover to kill his wife The Atlanta Constitution ran a story about her hanging in Georgia that covered slightly more than four full columns of text In an editorial sermon about her the Constitution said that Miss Eberhart not only committed murder but also committed adultery and violated the sanctity of marriage An 1890 article in the Elko Independent said of Elizabeth Potts who was hanged for murder To her we look for everything that is gentle and kind and tender and we can scarcely conceive her capable of committing the highest crime known to the law Indeed at the time this attitude was also applied to women in general By 1998 the press s and society s attitudes had changed dramatically A columnist from Texas wrote that convicted murderer Karla Faye Tucker should not be spared just because she was a woman The author went on to say that women could be just as violent and aggressive as men the idea that women are defenseless and need men s protection is probably the last vestige of institutionalized sexism that needs to be rubbed out   Children's Books in Print, 2007 ,2006   Film Genre Reader

Ingrid Gessner, 2007 This interdisciplinary study explores the legacies of Japanese American World War II internment experiences and the factors influencing the construction and mediation of cultural memory and national ethnic identity in the United States It discusses issues of contested memory and shows how once repressed historic events are selectively commemorated or even erased By focusing on representations of Japanese American internment experiences recovered reframed or created since the 1980s the study acknowledges that these experiences continue to be reevaluated in a climate of ethnic politicization Covering sites of memory ranging from historic places of Japanese American internment to memorials built both at centers of Japanese American cultural life as well as at centers of national cultural identity the study also critically approaches sites or rather sights in cyberspace that may be visited only virtually thus taking the scholarship of American memory studies into the digital realm
