Mesa Of Lost Women:

Return of the B Science Fiction and Horror Heroes Tom Weaver, 2000 The people who directed produced and starred in the scary and fantastic movies of the genre heyday over thirty years ago created memorable experiences as well as memorable movies This McFarland Classic brings together over fifty interviews with the directors producers actors and make up artists of science fiction and horror films of the 1940s 1950s and 1960s From B movies to classics Samuel Z Arkoff to Acquanetta these veteran vampire baits swamp monsters and flying saucers attackees share their memories This classic volume represents the union of two previous volumes Interviews with B Science Fiction and Horror Movie Makers more fun than the lovably cheap movies that inspired it Booklist RBB and Science Fiction Stars and Horror Heroes candid a must ARBA Together at last this combined collection of interviews offers a candid and delightful perspective on the movies that still make audiences squeal with fear and occasionally howl with laughter Gender and Environment in Science Fiction

Bridgitte Barclay, Christy Tidwell, 2020-07-07 Gender and Environment in Science Fiction focuses on the variety of ways that gender and nature interact in science fiction films and fictions exploring questions of different realities and posing new ones Science fiction asks questions to propose other ways of living it asks what if and that question is the basis for alternative narratives of ourselves and the world we are a part of What if humans could terraform planets What if we could create human nonhuman hybrids What if artificial intelligence gains consciousness What if we could realize kinship with other species through heightened empathy or traumatic experiences What if we imagine a world without oil The texts analyzed in this book ask these questions and others exploring how humans and nonhumans are connected how nonhuman biologies can offer diverse ways to think about human sex gender and sexual orientation and how interpretive strategies can subvert the messages of older films and written texts The Encyclopedia of Fantastic Film R. G. Young, 2000-04 Thirty five years in the making and destined to be the last word in fanta film references This incredible 1 017 page resource provides vital credits on over 9 000 films 1896 1999 of horror fantasy mystery science fiction heavy melodrama and film noir Comprehensive cast lists include directors writers cinematographers and composers Also includes plot synopses critiques re title translation information running times photographs and several cross referenced indexes by artist year song etc Paperback
