Metaphors in Mind

TRANSFORMATION THROUGH SYMBOLIC MODELLING

What do you do as a therapist, teacher, doctor or manager when you find yourself, stuck in a language trap? "It's like I'm hitting my head against a brick wall." "You just have to try something." "The feeling is the right (path to take)".

Metaphors in Mind describes how to give a client the opportunity to transform their inner symbolic perceptions and experience, when words or language seem to change, and how they can transform in a moment.

Based on David Grove's pioneering therapeutic approach and use of Clean Language, Symbolic Modelling is a coherent, systematic and accessible way of facilitating the psychotherapeutic process.

This comprehensive book covers the theory of metaphor, self-organising systems and symbolic modelling, the practice of Clean Language, the five stage therapeutic process and includes three case studies.
