Ernest Buckler,1968    Ernest Buckler Marta Dvořák, 2006-01-01 Margaret Atwood called Ernest Buckler one of the pathbreakers for the modern Canadian novel yet he has slipped into relative obscurity This new book by Marta Dvořák Ernest Buckler Rediscovery and Reassessment breaks new ground in Canadian literary studies by analyzing some of Buckler's works that have remained unknown or unexplored by critics and by addressing the formalistic innovations of these texts It allows a general readership to discover and an international specialized readership to reassess the wide even eclectic scope of an author best known for his first novel The Mountain and the Valley Marta Dvořák situates Buckler firmly within his cultural and intellectual environment She argues the importance of his connections with Emerson and the American transcendental milieu and demonstrates his links with Romantics such as Schopenhauer and Shelley and modernists like Joyce Faulkner and Mansfield as well as intellectuals from Aristotle to Aquinas She explores his philosophical vision and his complex adventurous relationship with language Extracts from Buckler's published and unpublished material juxtaposed with those from a wide range of writers from Henry James to Foucault offer new illuminating perspectives The progressive structure of the book will draw readers in to discussions on shared concerns the nostalgia for a vanished past the relationship between family and community the rural and the urban or the questioning of and coming to terms with ethics and the social fabric of today's rapidly changing technological horizon in which traditional values are eroding

Telling Stories ,2021-11-15 The present volume is a highly comprehensive assessment of the postcolonial short story since the thirty six contributions cover most geographical areas concerned Another important feature is that it deals not only with exclusive practitioners of the genre Mansfield Munro but also with well known novelists Achebe Armah Atwood Carey Rushdie so that stimulating comparisons are suggested between shorter and longer works by the same authors In addition the volume is of interest for the study of aspects of orality dialect dance rhythms circularity and trickster figure for instance and of the more or less conflictual relationships between the individual character or implied author and the community Furthermore the marginalized status of women emerges as another major theme both as regards the past for white women settlers or the present for urbanized characters primarily in Africa and India The reader will also have the rare pleasure of discovering Janice Kulik Keefer's Fox her version of what she calls in her commentary displaced autobiography or creative non fiction Lastly an extensive bibliography on the postcolonial short story opens up further possibilities for research
