Wodehouse,2014-01-28 THIS BOOK IS SPECIALLY DESIGNED FOR PEOPLE WHO FIND SMALL PRINT BOOKS HARD TO READ IT USES A FONT THAT IS TWICE AS LARGE AS NORMAL ENJOY YOUR READING    Psmith, Journalist Sir Pelham Grenville Wodehouse,2001-01-01 The man in the street would not have known it but a great crisis was imminent in New York journalism Everything seemed much as usual in the city The cars ran blithely on Broadway Newsboys shouted Wux try into the ears of nervous pedestrians with their usual Caruso like vim Society passed up and down Fifth Avenue in its automobiles and was there a furrow of anxiety upon Society s brow None At a thousand street corners a thousand policemen preserved their air of massive superiority to the things of this world Not one of them showed the least sign of perturbation Nevertheless the crisis was at hand Mr J Fillken Wilberfloss editor in chief of Cosy Moments was about to leave his post and start on a ten weeks holiday In New York one may find every class of paper which the imagination can conceive Every grade of society is catered for If an Esquimau came to New York the first thing he would find on the bookstalls in all probability would be the Blubber Magazine or some similar production written by Esquimaux for Esquimaux Everybody reads in New York and reads all the time The New Yorker peruses his favourite paper while he is being jammed into a crowded compartment on the subway or leaping like an antelope into a moving Street car There was thus a public for Cosy Moments Cosy Moments as its name an inspiration of Mr Wilberfloss s own is designed to imply is a journal for the home It is the sort of paper which the

father of the family is expected to take home with him from his office and read aloud to the chicks before bed time It was founded by its proprietor Mr Benjamin White as an antidote to yellow journalism One is forced to admit that up to the present yellow journalism seems to be competing against it with a certain measure of success Headlines are still of as generous a size as heretofore and there is no tendency on the part of editors to scamp the details of the last murder case Nevertheless Cosy Moments thrives It has its public Its contents are mildly interesting if you like that sort of thing There is a Moments in the Nursery page conducted by Luella Granville Waterman to which parents are invited to contribute the bright speeches of their offspring and which bristles with little stories about the nursery canary by Jane aged six and other works of rising young authors There is a Moments of Meditation page conducted by the Reverend Edwin T Philpotts a Moments Among the Masters page consisting of assorted chunks looted from the literature of the past when foreheads were bulgy and thoughts profound by Mr Wilberfloss himself one or two other pages a short story answers to correspondents on domestic matters and a Moments of Mirth page conducted by an alleged humorist of the name of B Henderson Asher which is about the most painful production ever served up to a confiding public The guiding spirit of Cosy Moments was Mr Wilberfloss Circumstances had left the development of the paper mainly to him For the past twelve months the proprietor had been away in Europe taking the waters at Carlsbad and the sole control of Cosy Moments had passed into the hands of Mr Wilberfloss Nor had he proved unworthy of the trust or unequal to the duties In that yearCosy Moments had reached the highest possible level of domesticity Anything not calculated to appeal to the home had been rigidly excluded And as a result the circulation had increased steadily Two extra pages had been added Moments Among the Shoppers and Moments with Society And the advertisements had grown in volume But the work had told upon the Editor Work of that sort carries its penalties with it Success means absorption and absorption spells softening of the brain Whether it was the strain of digging into the literature of the past every week or the effort of reading B Henderson Asher s Moments of Mirth is uncertain At any rate his duties combined with the heat of a New York summer had sapped Mr Wilberfloss s health to such an extent that the doctor had ordered him ten weeks complete rest in the mountains This Mr Wilberfloss could perhaps have endured if this had been all There are worse places than the mountains of America in which to spend ten weeks of the tail end of summer when the sun has ceased to grill and the mosquitoes have relaxed their exertions But it was not all The doctor a far seeing man who went down to first causes had absolutely declined to consent to Mr Wilberfloss s suggestion that he should keep in touch with the paper during his vacation He was adamant He had seen copies of Cosy Moments once or twice and he refused to permit a man in the editor s state of health to come in contact with Luella Granville Waterman s Moments in the Nursery and B Henderson Asher s Moments of Mirth The medicine man put his foot down firmly Psmith, Journalist - Pelham Grenville Wodehouse Grenville Wodehouse Pelham Grenville Wodehouse, P. G. Wodehouse, 2007-01-01 THE conditions of life in New York are so different from those of London that a story of this kind calls for a little explanation There are several million inhabitants of New York Not all of them eke out a precarious livelihood by murdering one another but there is a definite section of the population which murders not casually on the spur of the moment but on definitely commercial lines at so many dollars per murder The gangs of New York exist in fact I have not invented them Most of the incidents in this story are based on actual happenings The Rosenthal case where four men headed by a genial individual calling himself Gyp the Blood shot a fellow citizen in cold blood in a spot as public and fashionable as Piccadilly Circus and escaped in a motor car made such a stir a few years ago that the noise of it was heard all over the world and not as is generally the case with the doings of the gangs in New York only Rosenthal cases on a smaller and less sensational scale are frequent occurrences on Manhattan Island It was the prominence of the victim rather than the unusual nature of the occurrence that excited the New York press Most gang victims get a quarter of a column in small type

Psmith, Journalist P. G. Wodehouse, 2014-01-30 Considering what a prominent figure Mr John Bickersdyke was to be in Mike Jackson's life it was only appropriate that he should make a dramatic entry into it This he did by walking behind the bowler's arm when Mike had scored ninety eight causing him thereby to be clean bowled by a long hop It was the last day of the Ilsworth cricket week and the house team were struggling hard on a damaged wicket During the first two matches of the week all had been well Warm sunshine true wickets tea in the shade of the trees But on the Thursday night as the team champed their dinner contentedly after defeating the Incogniti by two wickets a patterning of rain made itself heard upon the windows By bedtime it had settled to a steady downpour On Friday morning when the team of the local regiment arrived in their brake the sun was shining once more in a watery melancholy way but play was not possible before lunch After lunch the bowlers were in their element The regiment winning the toss put together a hundred and thirty due principally to a last wicket stand between two enormous corporals who swiped at everything and had luck enough for two whole teams The house team followed with seventy eight of which Psmith by his usual golf methods claimed thirty Mike who had gone in first as the star bat of the side had been run out with great promptitude off the first ball of the innings which his partner had hit in the immediate neighbourhood of point At close of play the regiment had made five without loss This on the Saturday morning helped by another shower of rain which made the wicket easier for the moment they had increased to a hundred and forty eight leaving the house just two hundred to make on a pitch which looked as if it were made of linseed It was during this week that Mike had first made the acquaintance of Psmith s family Mr Smith had moved from Shropshire and taken Ilsworth Hall in a neighbouring county This he had done as far as could be ascertained simply because he had a poor opinion of Shropshire cricket And just at the moment cricket happened to be the pivot of his life My father Psmith had confided to Mike meeting him at the station in the family motor on the Monday is a man of vast but volatile brain He has not that calm dispassionate outlook on life which marks your true philosopher such as myself I I say interrupted Mike eyeing Psmith s movements with apprehension you aren t going to drive are you Who else As I was saying I am like some contented spectator of a Pageant My pater wants to jump in and stage manage He is a man of hobbies He never has more than one at a time and he never has that long But while he has it it s all there When I left the house this morning he was all for cricket But by the time we get to the ground he may have chucked cricket and taken up the Territorial Army Don t be surprised if you find the wicket being dug up into trenches when we arrive and the pro moving in echelon towards the pavilion No he added as the car turned into the drive and they caught a glimpse of white flannels and blazers in the distance and heard the sound of bat meeting ball cricket seems still to be topping the bill Come along and I ll show you your room It s next to mine so that if brooding on Life in the still hours of the night I hit on any great truth I shall pop in and discuss it with you While Mike was changing Psmith sat on his bed and continued to discourse I suppose you re going to the Varsity he said Rather said Mike lacing his boots You are of course Cambridge I hope I m going to King s Between ourselves confided Psmith I m dashed if I know what s going to happen to me I am the thingummy of what s its name Psmith, Journalist P.G.
