Modern Architecture In Alberta:

Modern Architecture in Alberta Trevor Boddy, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, Alberta. Alberta Culture and Multiculturalism, 1987      Canadian Modern Architecture Elsa Lam, Graham Livesey, 2019-11-19 Royal Architectural Institute of Canada RAIC President's Medal Award multi media representation of architecture Canada's most distinguished architectural critics and scholars offer fresh insights into the country's unique modern and contemporary architecture Beginning with the nation's centennial and Expo 67 in Montreal this fifty year retrospective covers the defining of national institutions and movements How Canadian architects interpreted major external trends Regional and indigenous architectural tendencies The influence of architects in Canada's three largest cities Toronto Montreal and Vancouver Co published with Canadian Architect this comprehensive reference book is extensively illustrated and includes fifteen specially commissioned essays      Contemporary Architects Muriel Emanuel, 2016-01-23      Suburban Modern Robert M. Stamp, 2004 While avant garde modernism disrupted the art salons architecture schools and design studios of the world's more sophisticated urban centres in the 20th century Calgary slept through the cultural upheavals as a provincial backwater Calgary's initiation to modernism might be dated to February 13 1947 when Imperial Oil blew in its famous well at Leduc Or the 1948 football season when Tom Brooks and Les Lear wrapped the Calgary Stampeders football team around an innovative and modernist looking T formation backfield to win the Grey Cup Calgarians embraced the modern age after the Second World War taking modernism into the streets and into the suburbs They went beyond art architecture and design and redefined modernism to include homes furniture appliances and cars In the process Calgarians democratized feminized and suburbanized modernism Suburban Modern examines controversies over coloured margarine and mixed drinking in post war Calgary It shows how new petro office buildings transformed the downtown skyline during the 1950s and 1960s and how new bus lines roads and bridges changed the city's transportation network As the city sprawled horizontally to engulf its ever expanding suburbs shoppers deserted downtown for suburban malls The book follows young couples into their post war dream homes with modern furnishings and barbecue appointed patios Suburban Modern argues that the suburbs rather than the downtown defined Calgary's approach to modernism      Contemporary Architects Ann Lee Morgan, Colin Naylor, 1987 To strengthen the contemporary focus of this volume we have added about forty architects and have deleted some whose activity ceased before World War II In making these decisions we have been assisted by an Advisory Board As in the first volume we have continued to define the word architect very broadly so as to include planners theorists structural engineers and landscape architects whose work seems to be central to the enterprise of creating habitable spaces in our day Editor's note      Twelve Modern Houses, 1945-1985 Graham Livesey, University of Calgary. Canadian Architectural Archives, Michael McMordie, Geoffrey Simmins, 1995 This publication part of the ongoing mandate of the Canadian Architectural Archives to examine the characteristics of Canadian architecture as reflected in the collections of the University of Calgary Library examines twelve architect created houses designed between the 1940s and the 1980s for several distinct regions of Canada. The architects chosen number among the most prolific and best known in Canada who were working during this period including Raymond T Affleck, Raymond Moriyama, Arthur Erickson, Douglas Cardinal, John B Parkin Associates and Patkau Architects. Other architects with perhaps a more regional reputation have also been included such as the Vancouver based firm of McCarter Nairne, Calgary's Jack Long and Edmonton's Peter Hemingway. Apart from the documentation of the twelve houses, drawings and photos, there are interpretative essays on each. A co-authored introductory essay explores several related themes: modernity, the contemporary house, approaches to landscape and the role of drawings in contemporary practice.

Canada Michelangelo Sabatino, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe, 2016-11-15. Canada is a country of massive size of diverse geographical features and an equally diverse population, all features that are magnificently reflected in its architecture. In this book, Rhodri Windsor Liscombe and Michelangelo Sabatino offer a richly informative history of Canadian architecture that celebrates and explores the country's many contributions to the spread of architectural modernity in the Americas. A distinct Canadian design attitude coalesced during the twentieth century, one informed by a liberal hybrid and pragmatic mindset, intent less upon the dogma of architectural language and more on thinking about the formation of inclusive spaces and places. Taking a fresh perspective on design production, they map the unfolding of architectural modernity across the country from the completion of the transcontinental railway in the late 1880s through to the present. Along the way, they discuss architecture within the broader contexts of political, industrial and sociocultural evolution, the urban/suburban expansion and new building technologies. Examining the works of architects and firms such as ARCOP, Eric Arthur, Ernest Cormier, Brigitte Shim and Howard Sutcliffe, this book brings Canadian architecture chronologically and thematically to life.

Canadian Reference Sources Mary E. Bond, Martine M. Caron, 1996. This bibliography cites those Canadian and foreign reference sources that describe Canadian people, institutions, organizations, publications, art, literature, languages and history. It lists books of a general nature as well as works in the disciplines of history and the humanities. These large divisions are then broken down by subject, genre, type of document and province or territory. Titles of national, provincial, territorial or regional interest are included in every subject area when available. The contents of the book are indexed four ways: by name, title, French subject and English subject. And to facilitate browsing, the major reference books, those dealing with more than one subject or a large geographical region, are also cross-referenced. Two entries have been created for each bilingual document in order to provide access and bibliographical descriptions in both of Canada's official languages. Entries for unilingual works include citation in the language of the publication and a bilingual annotation. The annotations are descriptive and provide information on the content, arrangements and indexing of works, the availability of non-print formats, previous editions and title changes and related works. Canadian Reference Sources will be an invaluable reference tool for future scholars and researchers.
