Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice Bradford W. Sheafor,Charles R. Horejsi,2006 0205446175 Sheafor Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice 7e The latest edition of this classic book continues to provide students and practitioners of social work with a one of a kind resource designed to emphasize the different techniques needed for successful practice Carefully updated to provide social workers with easy access to the most current information on professional techniques and guidelines and organized to support a generalist practice perspective Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice illustrates multiple ways in which both direct and indirect intervention activities are a part of the social worker s repertoire Touching upon everything from cultural competence to macro practice the content of this text is so widely applicable it is an invaluable aid in making the transition to a professional career in social work and a staple of professional social work libraries In a classroom it is ideal for use in advanced practice capstone and field work courses Parts I and II summarize the essential foundation elements of social work practice while Parts III through V set out 157 clearly described techniques and guidelines that can be used by students and new practitioners The latest edition includes many changes that make it just as essential as previous editions Techniques deleted from prior editions due to space restrictions are now available at www.ablongman.com/sheafor7e New techniques include guidelines for assessing small group functioning family group conferencing and building mentoring relationships as well as addressing client concerns related to spirituality and religion and serving the client or community experiencing an emergency or disaster Following the lessons of 9 11 new content is included to prepare social workers to deal a client or community emergency Information is included on Family group conferencing a new approach based on the principles of restorative justice about which social workers should be knowledgeable New guidelines for using mentoring relationships in which senior practitioners without direct administrative responsibilities support and nurture developing social workers are included in this edition along with new guidelines for assessing small group functioning as a means of strengthening subsequent intervention activities with groups Chapter 14 now includes a straight forward description of techniques for conducting empirical direct practice evaluation with current illustrations based on students applications of the most commonly used evaluation tools Managing Services Mark M. Davis,Janelle N. Heineke,2003 Managing Services is an alternative to the growing service management market in that it is more managerial and procedural placing less emphasis on quantitative tools and more on strategic concerns The benefit of this approach is that it views services from the perspective of the general manager rather than the operations specialist This is important especially considering most students taking this course aspire to and are preparing for managerial positions American Book Publishing Record ,2001

Problem Solving Margaret L. Arnold,Linda A. Heyne,James Busser,2005 The purpose of this book is to provide guidelines to park and recreation personnel in developing a systematic and creative approach to problems and issues In this fourth edition the authors bridge a serious gap by providing a basic process through which individuals can learn specific knowledge and functional skills of human relations The authors process of problem solving is an innovative and practical approach to meeting the needs of students and park recreation practitioners The majority of the case studies are new representing a wide array of current problems All cases are drawn from actual situations This book is suitable for staff development in service training recreation and park boards as well as a wide variety of social and educational institutions

Developing Web-based Instruction Elizabeth A. Dupuis,2003 Dupuis head of instructional services and the Doe and Moffitt Libraries U of California at Berkeley presents 14 papers that examine the full process of creating Web based library instruction from short tutorials to full online courses The papers emphasize instructional design and goals rather than specific technologies and software Three sections address planning and management evaluation and assessment and design and development Managing Two Worlds Paul Anisef, Kenise Murphy Kilbride, 2003 Based on an extensive and collaborative research effort this book features findings from particular ethno racial groups in Ontario highlighting family life social relations citizenship education and employment. It also includes comparisons of immigrant and refugee youth from different countries of origin and includes an overview of current research on immigrant youth settlement as well as an integrated summary of the research findings and perspectives for future investigation
