Modern Mans Conflicts:

Modern Man's Conflicts Dane Rudhyar, 2013-10 This is a new release of the original 1948 edition      Readings in Contemporary Problems in the United States Horace Taylor, Joseph Daniel McGoldrick, 1930 Gift of Rabbi W Gunther Plaut      Thinking the Unthinkable Charles C. Lemert, 2015-12-03 In the eloquent style for which he has become famous Charles Lemert writes of social theory as no one else Thinking the Unthinkable is offered as text for instruction yet it defies the prevailing assumption that social theory is a method for clarifying the facts of social life Lemert shows how social theory began late in the 19th century as a struggle to come to terms with the failure of modern reason to solve the social problems created by the capitalist world system Since then social theory has developed through twists and turns to think and rethink this Unthinkable Hence the surprising innovations of recent years postmodern queer postcolonial third wave feminist risk theories among others arising in the wake of globalization Once again Lemert has made the difficult clear in a book that students and other readers will treasure and keep      Perplexed Prophets Gaylord C. LeRoy, 2017-01-30 This book is a volume in the Penn Press Anniversary Collection To mark its 125th anniversary in 2015 the University of Pennsylvania Press rereleased more than 1 100 titles from Penn Press's distinguished backlist from 1899 1999 that had fallen out of print Spanning an entire century the Anniversary Collection offers peer reviewed scholarship in a wide range of subject areas

Man's Conflict with Technical Progress Walter Eugene Boveri, 1959      Role Conflict and the Teacher Gerald Grace, 2012 Gerald Grace here explores the concept of role conflict and the current theorizing about the problems of the teacher's role He investigates four potential problem areas role diffuseness role vulnerability role commitment versus career orientation and value conflict in a sample of one hundred and fifty secondary school teachers in a Midland town The analysis shows how a teacher's commitment to a particular set of values exposes him or her to conflict in an achievement oriented and pluralistic society These conflicts present in all schools are seen in their clearest form among secondary modern school teachers The author suggests that colleges of education in emphasizing commitment and in assuming value consensus predispose their students to conflict experiences He indicates that internal career possibilities in schools and the influence of graduate or certified status are also important factors in conflict exposure While accepting that certain role conflicts are important in the genesis of change the author proposes that levels of dysfunctional conflict can be reduced by the action of head teachers by structural change in the schools and innovations in teaching education      Dane Rudhyar Deniz Ertan, 2009 Dane Rudhyar 1895 1985 was a unique figure in twentieth century American culture a composer thinker painter poet novelist and expert on astrology His life and activities illuminate crucial twentieth century American themes about society history creativity and identity Favoring synthesis and a blend of what he called unity and multiplicity Rudhyar created a rare bridge between the West and the East built on American foundations His thought and work transcended disciplinary boundaries integrating perspectives that were and often still are generally pursued in isolation from each other The book is enriched with numerous color illustrations of Rudhyar's paintings and with examples drawn from his music and writings

Buss Professor of Psychology University of Michigan, Los Angeles Neil Malamuth Professor of Communication and Psychology and Chair of the Department of Communication and Speech University of California, 1996-03-21 Sexual harassment in the workplace date rape and domestic violence dominate the headlines and have recently sparked scholarly debates about the nature of the sexes Concurrently the scientific community is conducting research in topics of sex and gender issues Indeed more research is being done on the topics of sexual conflict and coercion than at any other time in the history of the social sciences Despite this attention it is clear that these issues are being addressed from two essentially different perspectives one is labeled feminist while the other viewed as antithetical to the feminist movement is called evolutionary psychology which emphasizes the history of reproductive strategies in understanding conflict between the sexes This book brings together leading experts from both sides of the debate in order to discover how each could offer insights lacking in the other The editors overall goal is to show how the feminist and evolutionary approaches are complementary despite their evident differences then provide an integration and synthesis In fact several of the contributors to this unique volume consider themselves advocates of both approaches As a stimulating presentation of the dynamics of sex power and conflict and a pioneering rapprochement of the diverse tendencies within the scientific community this book will attract a wide audience in both psychology and women's studies fields     The Methodist Review Quarterly, 1913     Man in Conflict Paul Friesen Barkman, 1965     The North American Review Jared Sparks, Henry Cabot Lodge, Edward Everett, James Russell Lowell, 1911 Vols 277 230 no 2 include Stuff and nonsense v 5 6 no 8 Jan 1929 Aug 1930     Congressional Record United States.
