Stories of Change - Rwanda, Final Report Iruhiriye, Elyse, Olney, Deanna K., Ramani, Gayathri V., Heckert, Jessica, Niyongira, Emmanuel, Frongillo, Edward A., 2019-08-21 Globally undernutrition is related to almost half of the deaths in children younger than five years of age 1 It leads to large human and economic costs to countries through increased morbidity and mortality in childhood poor child growth and development and hinders adult work capacity and productivity These consequences in turn have serious implications for national development Eliminating malnutrition has therefore been on the forefront of the political agenda of many countries worldwide and for global movements such as Scaling Up Nutrition SUN Extensive evidence on what nutrition-specific interventions work to reduce malnutrition exists 1 Less is known however about how to effectively implement these interventions at scale and what mix of interventions is needed to effectively address the multiple co-existing nutrition problems in different contexts including nutrition-sensitive programs Additionally greater clarity is needed on the role that commitment program and policy coherence and context-specific factors play in creating enabling environments to reduce malnutrition The Stories of Change SoC case studies originally conducted in Bangladesh Ethiopia India Odisha state Nepal Senegal and Zambia and now in Rwanda aim to fill some of these knowledge gaps by examining the drivers of change in reducing malnutrition across different contexts      Theory of Collective Behaviour Neil J. Smelser, 2013-10-15 This is Volume XVII of eighteen of a series on the Sociology of Behaviour and Psychology First published in 1962 this study offers a theoretical synthesis of collective behavior      Journal of Nervous and Mental Disease, 1893 July 1918 include reports of various neurological and psychiatric societies      Reports of Cases in Criminal Law Argued and Determined in All the Courts in England and Ireland Edward William Cox, 1886      Cox's Reports of Cases in Criminal Law Argued and Determined in the Courts of England Great Britain. Courts, 1886      Advances in Motivation Science, 2015-08-18 Advances in Motivation Science Elsevier's new serial focuses on the ways motivation has traditionally been one of the mainstays of the science of psychology not only playing a major role in the early dynamic and Gestalt models of the mind but also playing an integral and fundamental part of the behaviorist theories of learning and action The cognitive revolution in the 1960 and 70's eclipsed the emphasis on motivation to a large extent but it has returned in full force prompting this new serial on a hot topic of the contemporary scene that is once again firmly entrenched as a foundational issue in scientific psychology This volume brings together internationally recognized experts who focus on cutting edge theoretical and empirical contributions relating to this important area of psychology Focuses on the ways motivation has traditionally been one of the mainstays of the science of psychology Inclusive text for a variety of interests including motivation psychology self regulation strivings needs and motives Presents a hot topic that is once again firmly entrenched as a foundational issue in scientific psychology Provides an overview of important research programs conducted by the most respected scholars in psychology Includes special attention on directions for future research The Motivated Mind Arie Kruglanski, 2018-02-02 In the World Library of Psychologists series international experts themselves present career long collections of what they judge to be their finest pieces extracts from books key articles salient research findings and their major practical theoretical contributions In this volume Arie Kruglanski reflects on the development throughout his distinguished career of his wide ranging research covering radicalisation human judgement and belief formation group and intergroup processes and motivated cognition This collection offers an invaluable insight into the key works behind the formation of Kruglanski's seminal theory of lay epistemics as well as his important input into a diverse range of fields of social psychology A specially written introduction gives an intimate overview of this career and contextualises the selection in relation to changes in the field during this time With continuing relevance today and of vast historical importance this collection is essential reading for anyone with an interest in goals belief formation group processes and social psychology in general Reports of All the Cases Decided by All the Superior Courts Relating to Magistrates, Municipal, and Parochial Law Great Britain.
