Evans, 2003 A book by book chapter by chapter detailed look at the historical geographical cultural and economic background of the New Testament A window is opened to the setting of the New Testament enabling a better understanding of Jesus words and life      Holman QuickSource Guide to Christian Apologetics Doug

Powell, 2006-07-01 In today s pluralistic society not every approach to sharing the gospel will work with all people Being ready to give reasons for the hope we have in Christ means understanding the contextual framework of the people we are addressing In the Holman QuickSource Guide to Christian Apologetics Renaissance man Doug Powell defends the Christian faith in a new key taking timehonored approaches in apologetics and freshly presenting them for a new generation Chapters include 1 What Is Apologetics 2 The Cosmological Argument for God s Existence 3 The Teleological Argument for God s Existence 4 The Axiological Argument for God s Existence 5 Which God Exists 6 Where Did the New Testament Come From 7 Is the New Testament Reliable 8 ExtraBiblical Evidence for Jesus 9 Is the Old Testament Reliable 10 The Fulfillment of Prophecy 11 What About Miracles 12 Was Jesus Raised from Death 13 Did Jesus Claim to Be God Is He the Only Way 14 How can God allow Evil Pain and Suffering      The Formation of the Biblical Canon: Volume 2 Lee Martin

McDonald, 2017-01-26 Lee Martin McDonald provides a magisterial overview of the development of the biblical canon the emergence of the list of individual texts that constitutes the Christian bible In these two volumes in sum more than double the length of his previous works McDonald presents his most in depth overview to date McDonald shows students and researchers how the list of texts that constitute the bible was once far more fluid than it is today and guides readers through the minefield of different texts different versions and the different lists of texts considered canonical that abounded in antiquity Questions of the origin and transmission of texts are introduced as well as consideration of innovations in the presentation of texts collections of documents archaeological finds and Church councils In the first volume McDonald reexamines issues of canon formation once considered settled and sets the range of texts that make up the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament in their broader context Each individual text is discussed as are the cultural political and historical situations surrounding them This second volume considers the New Testament and the range of so called apocryphal gospels that were written in early centuries and used by many Christian groups before the canon was closed Also included are comprehensive appendices which show various canon lists for both Old and New Testaments and for the bible as a whole Ancient Texts for New Testament Studies Craig A. Evans, 2005 One of the daunting challenges facing the New Testament interpreter is achieving familiarity with the immense corpus of Greco Roman Jewish and pagan primary source materials From the Paraphrase of Shem to Pesiqta Rabbati scholars and students alike must have a fundamental understanding of these documents content provenance and place in NT interpretation But achieving even an elementary facility with this literature often requires years of experience or a photographic memory Evans's dexterous survey a thoroughly revised and significantly expanded edition of his Noncanonical Writings and New Testament Interpretation amasses the requisite details of date language text translation and general bibliography Evans also evaluates the materials relevance for interpreting the NT The vast range of literature examined includes the Old Testament apocrypha the Old Testament pseudepigrapha the Dead Sea Scrolls assorted ancient translations of the Old Testament and the Targum paraphrases Philo and Josephus the New Testament pseudepigrapha the early church fathers various gnostic writings and more the NT and a comparison of Jesus parables with those of the rabbis will further save the interpreter precious time Heaven and Earth in the Gospel of Matthew Jonathan T. Pennington, 2007-11-30 A much overlooked aspect of the Gospel of Matthew is the theme of heaven and earth Rather than being a reverential circumlocution for God heaven in Matthew is part of a highly developed discourse of heaven and earth language Matthew's idiolectic way of using heaven language consists of four aspects 1 a distinction in meaning between singular and plural forms of ouranos 2 frequent use of the heaven and earth word pair 3 regular reference to the Father in heaven and 4 the recurrent use of the Matthean expression kingdom of heaven This book examines the historical precedents for each of these aspects and shows in Matthew how they serve one overriding theological purpose to highlight the tension that currently exists between heaven and earth or God and humanity while looking forward to its eschatological resolution Multilingualism in Ancient Contexts Louis C. Jonker, Angelika Berlejung, Izak Cornelius, 2021-05-03 Multilingualism remains a thorny issue in many contexts be it cultural political or educational Debates and discourses on this issue in contexts of diversity particularly in multicultural societies but also in immigration situations are often conducted with present day communicational and educational needs in mind or with political and identity agendas This is nothing new There are a vast number of witnesses from the ancient West Asian and Mediterranean world attesting to the same debates in long past societies Could an investigation into the linguistic landscapes of ancient societies shed any light on our present day debates and discourses This volume suggests that this is indeed the case In fourteen chapters written and visual sources of the ancient world are investigated and explored by scholars specialising in those fields of study to engage in an interdisciplinary discourse with modern day debates about multilingualism A final chapter by an expert in language in education responds critically to the contributions in the book to open avenues for further interdisciplinary engagement together with contemporary linguists and educationists on the matter of multilingualism
