Perspectives on Voluntary Action David Lewis, 2013-11-05 This text presents a perspective on the third sector Rather than considering non governmental development organizations and voluntary agencies separately it explores the similarities differences and growing connections between them in both northern and southern contexts Authors in the field consider the differences in scale and priority that exist between different types of third sector organizations in different settings as well as the common challenges of accountability legitimacy effectiveness and governance Models of learning and communication including southern ideas such as micro credit provision are also examined as are the continuing barriers

Trustees of Culture Francie Ostrower, 2020-06-05 Cultural trusteeship is a subject that fascinates those who wonder about the relationship between power and culture What compels the wealthy to serve on the boards of fine arts institutions How do they exercise their influence as trustees and how does this affect the way arts institutions operate To find out Francie Ostrower conducted candid personal interviews with 76 trustees drawn from two opera companies and two art museums in the United States Her new study demonstrates that members of elite arts boards walk a fine line between maintaining their status and serving the needs of the large scale organizations they oversee As class members whose status depends in part on the prestige of the boards on which they serve trustees seek to perpetuate arts boards as exclusive elite enclaves But in response to pressures to increase and diversify the audiences for arts institutions elite board members act in a surprisingly open manner in terms of organizational accessibility and operations Written with clarity and grace Trustees of Culture will contribute significantly to our understanding of organizational governance the politics of fundraising elite arts participation and philanthropy as well as the consequences of wider social policies that continue to emphasize private financial support Ostrower's study will prove to be indispensable reading for not just sociologists of culture but anyone interested in how the arts are financially and institutionally supported
