Noran Bang The Yellow Room:

Reading Without Maps? Den Tandt Christophe (ed.), 2005 Among the intellectual debates of the last forty years the critique of cultural canons has attracted the highest share of public attention stirring academic educational and media controversies on both sides of the Atlantic Postmodernism feminism postcolonialism and multiculturalism have refashioned the attitudes of educators and audiences towards cultural memory opening up curricula to subjects and traditions previously excluded from the humanities Predictably these new critical practices have triggered heated responses from commentators fearing that culture and education might thereby be deprived of their capacity to provide audiences and learners with proper groundings and landmarks The present volume gathers contributions that throw light on multiple aspects of this reconfiguration of cultural memory It brings together essays focusing on the dynamics of canon formation in several fields literature drama film and music Contributors examine how writers and communities find their bearings in a cultural landscape more complex than that previously envisaged by advocates of the Great Tradition Specifically the present essays throw light on the status of modernist writing drama in English or popular genres within the new canonical topography elaborated at the turn of the twenty first century

Noran Bang Myung Jin Kang, 1999 The death of a beloved grandmother ignites a wave of explosive emotions in a Canadian Korean family in the late 1970s “Mouths on Fire with Songs”. Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity Inspired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today

Signatures of the Past Marc Maufort, Caroline De Wagter, 2008 In the last decades of the twentieth century North American drama has powerfully enacted the problematic notions of cultural memory and identity as the essays assembled in this critical anthology demonstrate Echoing Derrida s non essentialist interpretation of the term signature this collection provides an innovative focus on North American theatre and drama as a site of latent cultural memories In this volume the concept of cultural memory offers a privileged vantage point from which to redefine issues of diasporic identities exilic predicaments and multi ethnic subject positions at the dawn of a new century Playwrights examined here include noted Canadian and US artists such as Marie Clements Eva Ensler Lorraine Hansberry Tomson Highway Cherr e Moraga Djanet Sears Guillermo Verdecchia August Wilson and Chay Yew to cite but a few In the process of remembering North American dramatists develop new aesthetic modes in which the signatures of the past merge with the present and foreshadow an imagined future
