Iconicity in Cognition and across Semiotic Systems Sara Lenninger, Olga Fischer, Christina Ljungberg, Elżbieta Tabakowska, 2022-11-15 This volume investigates iconicity as to both comprehension and production of meaning in language gesture pictures art and literature It highlights iconic processes in meaning making and interpretation across different semiotic systems at structurally historically and pragmatically different levels of iconicity with special focus on Cognitive Semiotics Exploring the ubiquity of iconicity in verbal visual and gestural communication these contributions discuss it from the point of view of human meaning making examined as a phenomenon that is experienced embodied and often polysemiotic in nature Introducing Sign Language Literature Rachel Sutton-Spence, Michiko Kaneko, 2017-09-16 Introducing Sign Language Literature Folklore and Creativity is the first textbook dedicated to analyzing and appreciating sign language storytelling poetry and humour The authors assume no prior knowledge of sign language or literary studies introducing readers to a world of visual language creativity in deaf communities Introducing Sign Language Literature Folklore and Creativity Explains in straightforward terms the unique features of this embodied language art form Draws on an online anthology of over 150 sign language stories poems and jokes Suggests ways of analysing and appreciating the rich artistic heritage of deaf communities Watch a short video about the book The SAGE Deaf Studies Encyclopedia Genie Gertz, Patrick Boudreault, 2016-01-05 The time has come for a new in depth encyclopedic collection of articles defining the current state of Deaf Studies at an international level and using the critical and intersectional lens encompassing the field The emergence of Deaf Studies programs at colleges and universities and the broadened knowledge of social sciences including but not limited to Deaf History Deaf Culture Signed Languages Deaf Bilingual Education Deaf Art and more have served to expand the activities of research teaching analysis and curriculum development The field has experienced a major shift due to increasing awareness of Deaf Studies research since the mid 1960s The field has been further influenced by the Deaf community's movement resistance activism and politics worldwide as well as the impact of technological advances such as in communications with cell phones computers and other devices A major goal of this new encyclopedia is to shift focus away from the Medical Pathological Model that would view Deaf individuals as needing to be fixed in order to correct hearing and speaking deficiencies for the sole purpose of assimilating into mainstream society By contrast The Deaf Studies Encyclopedia seeks to carve out a new and critical perspective on Deaf Studies with the focus that the Deaf are not a people with a disability to be treated and cured medically but rather are members of a distinct cultural group with a distinct and vibrant community and way of being Selected Articles on Censorship of the Theater and Moving Pictures ,1931 Canadian Moving Picture Digest ,1926 Dramatic Mirror of the Stage and Motion Pictures ,1917 Moving Picture World and View Photographer ,1915 Static Films and Moving Pictures Jennifer Valcke, 2013 Doctoral Thesis Dissertation from the year 2008 in the subject Art Photography and Film grade cum laude University of Edinburgh language

English abstract Photomontage has more to do with film than with any other art form they have in common the technique of montage Sergei Tretyakov By considering that photomontage and film use the technique of cutting and gluing as dominant artistic device and that montage a technique unifying art and technology for the first time emerged as a dominant artistic feature of the avant garde this thesis will explore the ideological and perceptual implications of its advent in avant garde art and film The technological advances of the beginning of the twentieth century and particularly the advent of photography allowed avant garde artists to break free from traditional concepts of artistic production they dispensed with the old criteria of uniqueness originality handicraft and personal style At a time when many avant garde artists abruptly ceased to paint photomontage emerged as the privileged locus for a caesura with traditional art forms Photomontage envisioned film aesthetics insofar as it combines and juxtaposes images of various perspectival planes and angles Raoul Hausmann described his early photomontages as motionless moving pictures A corresponding observation can be made on the use of montage in cinema a technique which crucially underpins the illusion of movement created through the succession of photographic stills The present thesis will investigate photomontage and film in order to examine the effect technological reproduction played in revolutionising artistic production perception and ideology where the technique and philosophy of montage was key
