Mrs. Biddlebox Linda Wasmer Smith,2002-01      Mrs. Biddlebox Linda Smith,2007 With baking magic mrs Biddlebox uses fox dirt sky and other ingredients of a rotten day to transform it into a sweet cake      Mrs. Biddlebox Linda Smith,2006-12 On a knotty little hill In a dreary little funk Mrs Biddlebox rolled over On the wrong side of her bunk Mrs Biddlebox is having a really bad day The birds are screeching her belly is grumbling and even her crumpets are stale What is she to do Then suddenly Mrs Biddlebox has the most bewitching idea With a pinch of magic and just the right amount of humor Linda Smith and Marla Frazee have whipped up an enchantingly original tale that will charm anyone who s ever woken up on the wrong side of the bunk      Children's Book Corner Judy Bradbury,2005-08-30 This third book in the four book Children s Book Corner set provides a complete program for those starting a read aloud program in their classroom their school or public library or their home This volume focuses on read alouds for children in grades 3 and 4 It provides book lists book selection ideas as well as pre reading while reading and post reading questions and activities Parent Pull Out Pages with helpful tips are provided for duplication Helpful appendices and an index furnish additional aides to structure a great read aloud program New in this book is a section Up Close and Personal of personal notes from children s authors discussing their books featured in the read aloud section Also new to the section is Write Away providing writing tips and activities This third book in the four book Children s Book Corner set provides a complete program for those starting a read aloud program at home in their classroom or school or their public library This volume focuses on read alouds for children in grades 3 and 4 It provides book lists book selection ideas as well as pre reading while reading and post reading questions and activities Parent Pull Out Pages with helpful tips are provided for duplication Helpful appendices and an index furnish additional aides to structure a great read aloud program New in this book is a section Up Close and Personal of personal notes from children s authors discussing their books featured in the read aloud section Also new to the section is Write Away providing writing tips and activities Grades 3 and 4      Raising A Reader Jennie Nash,2013-07-30 What were my kids born to do That is the question I hope to help them answer And because reading is the thing I love most it s only natural for me to hope it will become something they love too The trouble is that reading is a particularly slippery passion to want to pass along because it s a skill most parents would agree their children have to master to one degree or another from Raising a Reader Can passion be passed along from parent to child Can you in other words make someone love baseball ballet or books Of course you can t but that doesn t stop parents from trying Jennie Nash was one of those parents a parent so obsessed about getting her kids to read that her desire sometimes strayed into desperation her hope often became an obsession and instead of helping her resolve got in the way In the end she found that like so many of the things we do as parents passing along a passion for reading happens in the push and pull of digging in and letting go day in and day out both because of and in spite of our efforts Nash shares stories and misadventures from the years when her young daughters were learning what it meant to have a relationship with words and she was learning to let them. She reminds us how the magic moments happen in their own sweet time by being together in the presence of good books and seeing each child as unique. Each chapter of Raising a Reader ends with personal practical tips and games that spring straight from the narrative. A comprehensive index discusses many of the books Nash has enjoyed with her children providing a year's worth of titles for parents and their children to explore.

What to Read When Pam Allyn, 2009-04-02 Read Pam Allyn's posts on the Penguin Blog. The books to read aloud to children at the important moments in their lives. In What to Read When award-winning educator Pam Allyn celebrates the power of reading aloud with children. In many ways books provide the first opportunity for children to begin to reflectively engage with and understand the world around them. Not only can parents entertain their child and convey the beauty of language through books, they can also share their values and create lasting connections. Here Allyn offers parents and caregivers essential advice on choosing appropriate titles for their children, taking into account a child's age, attention ability, gender, and interests, along with techniques for reading aloud effectively. But what sets this book apart is the extraordinary annotated list of more than three hundred titles suitable for the pivotal moments in a child's life. With category themes ranging from friendship and journeys to thankfulness, separations, silliness, and spirituality, What to Read When is a one-of-a-kind guide to how parents can best inspire children through reading together. In addition, Pam Allyn includes an indispensable Reader's Ladder section with recommendations for children at every stage from birth to age ten. With the author's warm and engaging voice throughout, discussion questions to encourage in-depth conversations, as well as advice on helping kids make the transition to independent reading, this book will help shape thoughtful, creative, and curious children, imparting a love of reading that will last a lifetime. These Penguin Young Reader's Books are referenced in What to Read When.
