Mrs Munck:

The Berkeley Literary Women's Revolution Marsha Hudson, Bridget Connelly, Doris Earnshaw, 2005 Even during the late 1960s academia remained largely the province of men That began to change at the University of California at Berkeley in 1969 when Marsha Hudson posted notices across campus proposing a feminist literary salon The purpose was to discuss women s literature a few female writers received passing notice in the classroom but the multitude was either ignored or forgotten The informal gatherings continued for years growing into an activist movement that established the first Women s Studies major at Berkeley helped produce the first major anthologies of women s poetry and fought for equality and recognition in every corner of the education system They risked their academic futures in the process but the efforts of those women and others helped change the face and shape of higher learning forever These 16 essays were written by members of Marsha s Salon and its successors the Comparative Literature Women s Caucus a group of female graduate students at UC Berkeley organized in 1969 by Marsha Hudson The group met for years and helped lead the charge to bring sexual equality to all facets of education These annotated essays recount the atmosphere of the time that made change necessary the upheaval brought about by the feminist revolution in education the direction that the movement took and the current state of feminist learning in academia An appendix features period letters and documents from group members regarding the need for changes at Berkeley as well as statistical information about women s studies and related subjects Honey, Baby, Mine Laura Dern, Diane Ladd, 2023-04-25 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER AND TOWN COUNTRY BEST CELEBRITY MEMOIR OF 2023 As actors Dern and Ladd have spent decades peeling back layers to reveal their characters fears and desires It s when they turn that focus to each other and themselves that something remarkable emerges New York Times A collection of deeply personal conversations from award winning actress and activist Laura Dern and the woman she admires most her mother legendary actress Diane Ladd What happens when we are brave enough to speak our truths to the ones we love the most Laura Dern and Diane Ladd always had a close relationship but the stakes were raised when Diane developed a sudden life threatening illness Diane s doctor prescribed long walks to build back her lung capacity The exertion was challenging and Laura soon learned the best way to distract her mom was to get her talking and telling stories Their conversations along the way began to break down the traditional barriers between mothers and daughters They discussed the most personal topics love sex marriage divorce art ambition and legacy In Honey Baby Mine Laura and Diane share these conversations as well as reflections and anecdotes taking readers on an intimate tour of their lives Complementing these candid exchanges they have included photos family recipes and other mementos The result is a celebration of the power of leaving nothing unsaid that will make you want to call the people you love the most and start talking Mrs. Munck Diane Ladd, 1995 Figures of Light Carole Zucker, 2013-11-11 It is a rare and remarkable book that provides a forum for actors to discuss in their own words their experiences their craft and the creative process that makes and informs a brilliant performance This book of
