Romantic Postmodernism in American Fiction

Eberhard Alsen,2023-12-21 Intended for teachers and students of American Literature this book is the first comprehensive analysis of romantic tendencies in postmodernist American fiction The book challenges the opinion expressed in the Columbia History of the American Novel 1991 and propagated by many influential scholars that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction is represented by the disjunctive and nihilistic work of such writers as Kathy Acker Donald Barthelme and Robert Coover Professor Alsen disagrees He contends that this kind of fiction is not read and taught much outside an isolated but powerful circle in the academic community It is the two part thesis of Professor Alsen s book that the mainstream of postmodernist fiction consists of the widely read work of the Nobel Prize laureates Saul Bellow and Toni Morrison and other similar writers and that this mainstream fiction is essentially romantic To support his argument Professor Alsen analyzes representative novels by Saul Bellow J D Salinger Norman Mailer Flannery O Connor John Updike Kurt Vonnegut Philip Roth Thomas Pynchon Toni Morrison the later John Barth Alice Walker William Kennedy and Paul Auster Professor Alsen demonstrates that the traits which distinguish the fiction of the romantic postmodernists from the fiction of their disjunctive and nihilist colleagues include a vision of life that is a form of philosophical idealism an organic view of art modes of storytelling that are reminiscent of the nineteenth century romance and such themes as the nature of sin or evil the negative effects of technology on the soul and the quest for transcendence

A Life in Words Paul Auster,I. B.

Siegumfeldt,2017-10-03 An inside look into Paul Auster s art and craft the inspirations and obsessions mesmerizing and dramatic in turn A remarkably candid and often surprisingly dramatic investigation into one writer s art craft and life A Life in Words is rooted in three years of dialogue between Auster and Professor I B Siegumfeldt starting in 2011 while Siegumfeldt was in the process of launching the Center for Paul Auster Studies at the University of Copenhagen It includes a number of surprising disclosures both concerning Auster s work and about the art of writing generally It is a book that s full of surprises unscripted yet amounting to a sharply focused portrait of the inner workings of one of America s most productive and successful writers through all twenty one of Auster s narrative works and the themes and obsessions that drive them

Conversations with Paul Auster James M. Hutchisson,2013-01-24 Paul Auster b 1947 is one of the most critically acclaimed and intensely studied authors in America today His varied career as a novelist poet translator and filmmaker has attracted scholarly scrutiny from a variety of critical perspectives The steadily rising arc of his large readership has made him something of a popular culture figure with many appearances in print interviews as well as on television the radio and the internet Auster s best known novel may be his first City of Glass 1985 a grim and intellectually puzzling mystery that belies its surface image as a detective novel and goes on to become a profound meditation on transience and mortality the inadequacies of language and isolation Fifteen more novels have followed since then including The Music of Chance Moon Palace The Book of Illusions and The Brooklyn Follies He has in the words of one critic given the phrase experimental fiction a good name by fashioning bona fide literary works with all the rigor and intellect demanded of the contemporary avant garde This volume the first of its kind on Auster will be useful to both scholars and students for the penetrating self analysis and the wide range of biographical information and critical commentary it contains Conversations with Paul Auster covers all of Auster s oeuvre from The New York Trilogy of which City of Glass is a component to Sunset Park 2010 along with his screenplays for Smoke 1995 and Blue in the Face 1996 Within Auster nimbly discusses his poetry memoir nonfiction translations and film directing

Paul Auster and the Influence of Maurice Blanchot María Laura Arce, 2016-04-11

Poet writer and filmmaker Paul Auster is one of the great contributors to American postmodern literature Influenced by authors like Poe and the hardboiled detective stories of the 1950s Auster s novels represented a new genre of anti detective fiction in which the case itself loses direction and is overshadowed by existential questions Analyzing three of his novels Ghosts 1986 The Music of Chance 1990 and Mr Vertigo 1994 this critical study explores the intertextual relationship between Auster s work and the oeuvre of French writer and critic Maurice Blanchot The author explores Auster s work as a fictionalization of Blanchot s concept of inspiration and the construction of imaginary space
