Future Tourism Trends Volume 1 Canan Tanrisever, Hüseyin Pamukçu, Anukrati Sharma, 2024-01-22. The world is entering the Third Millennium in which great changes are expected in all areas of human interest, life and activity. These changes have been brought on by past and present man-made events which have had both positive and negative consequences. The coming millennium will be marked by significant social, political, demographic and technological changes and will definitely differ from the last century. The future will bring more leisure time, a higher standard of living and a better quality of life for us all. Future Tourism Trends examines recent and the most probable changes and answers questions such as Who is the new tourist if there is one and what is she looking for? Is the new post-technological era transforming the very essence of travelling? The authors present a wide range of visionary insights as well as operational takeaways.

Tourism in a VUCA World Naser Ul Islam, Manjula Chaudhary, Izidora Marković Vukadin, 2024-07-19. Recent issues have led to a growing need for a strategic re-evaluation of the tourism industry vis-à-vis volatility, uncertainty, complexity and ambiguity (VUCA) in the environment. The authors identify novel solutions through an integration of knowledge from the fields of social, physical and biological sciences.

Culturally Competent Spiritual Care during Health Disasters and Emergencies Irena Papadopoulos, Runa Lazzarino, Christina Koulouglioti, 2025-11-10. This innovative book draws together a wide range of multidisciplinary research to illuminate how the helping professions can provide person-centred spiritual care to their patients in a health emergency, making use of new digital technologies alongside more established modes of care. Drawing on primary research undertaken during the COVID-19 pandemic and including vignettes from practitioners around the world, this book explores the need for culturally competent spiritual care, different perspectives on spirituality from philosophy and religion, including posthumanist theories, the necessity for culturally competent and compassionate spiritual care in health settings during health disasters and emergencies, including the COVID-19 pandemic, the development of a strategy for delivering culturally competent spiritual care in circumstances of major health disasters and the training of staff ethics and moral injury and equality, diversity and inclusion in the provision of spiritual care, opinions and lived experiences from health, social and pastoral care professionals about spiritual care in health settings, the use of new digital and artificially intelligent technologies to provide spiritual care during the COVID-19 pandemic and their potential use in upcoming health disasters. Culturally Competent Spiritual Care during Health Disasters and Emergencies is an important contribution to the literatures on spiritual care, disaster healthcare, culturally competent healthcare and technology in
