which they fought en masse Afro Cubans demanded change politically by forming the first national black party in the Western Hemisphere. This challenge met with strong opposition from the white Cuban elite culminating in the massacre of thousands of Afro Cubans in 1912. The event effectively ended Afro Cubans political organization along racial lines and Helg stresses that although some cultural elements of African origin were integrated into official Cuban culture true racial equality has remained elusive. Famous Explorers Garnet Jackson, 2000.
