Pleasure in the News Kim Gallon, 2020-05-25 Critics often chastised the twentieth century black press for focusing on sex and scandal rather than African American achievements In Pleasure in the News Kim Gallon takes an opposing stance arguing that African American newspapers fostered black sexual expression agency and identity Gallon discusses how journalists and editors created black sexual publics that offered everyday African Americans opportunities to discuss sexual topics that exposed class and gender tensions While black churches and black schools often encouraged sexual restraint the black press printed stories that complicated notions about respectability Sensational coverage also expanded African American women s sexual consciousness and demonstrated the tenuous position of female impersonators black gay men and black lesbians in early twentieth African American urban communities Informative and empowering Pleasure in the News redefines the significance of the black press in African American history and advancement while shedding light on the important cultural and social role that sexuality played in the power of the black press

News and Sexuality Laura Castañeda, Shannon B. Campbell, 2006 The Accrediting Council of Educators in Journalism and Mass Communications ACEJMC recently added sexual orientation to its revised diversity standards This means that journalism schools seeking accreditation or re accreditation must develop a curriculum that fosters an understanding of issues and perspectives that is inclusive in terms of gender race ethnicity and sexual orientation This volume containing original material written for this text is designed to satisfy the requirement by the ACEJMC that all journalism departments teach sexual diversity Moving from description to analysis to application the text includes the history of media coverage of gay lesbian bisexual transgender and intersex GLBTI issues and coverage of important contemporary issues in the news such as Don t Ask Don t Tell the rise of GLBTI families and AIDS News and Sexuality Media Portraits of Diversity is a practical teaching tool that will help educators meet these new accreditation standards by addressing these complex and often controversial issues providing additional resources discussion questions suggested homework assignments and a glossary of terms Student journalists must be equipped to bring a general knowledge of sexual diversity issues to the table as part of their professional education repertoire And any adult who consumes media messages whether or not they work in media also must be able to spot inaccurate or biased reporting

Key Features Moves from description to analysis to application putting issues and episodes into context All readings are original and written for this text Contains student study guides within each chapter with resources including Websites books and videos Concludes each chapter with discussion questions assignments and activities that bring the issues to life for students Chapter opening photographs highlight key historical and contemporary events in news media coverage of sexual diversity Includes a style guide prepared by the National Lesbian and Gay Journalists Association

News, Gender and Power Stuart Allan, Gill Branston, Cynthia Carter, 2002-01-31 How do gender relations affect the practice of journalism Despite the star status accorded to some women reporters and the dramatic increase in the number of women working in journalism why do men continue to occupy most senior management positions And why do female readers viewers and listeners remain as elusive as ever News Gender and Power addresses the pressing questions of how gender shapes the forms practice institutions and audiences of journalism The contributors who include John Hartley Pat Holland Jenny Kitzinger and Myra Macdonald draw on feminist theory and gender sensitive critiques to explore media issues such as ownership and control employment and occupation status the representation of women in the media the sexualization of news and audience research Within this framework the contributors explore media coverage of the trial of O J Simpson British beef and the BSE scandal the horrific crimes of Fred and Rosemary West child sexual abuse and false memory syndrome the portrayal of women in TV documentaries such as Modern Times and Cutting Edge
