New York Images Of The Landscape:

New York, Images of the Landscape Carr Clifton, 1988 The American Landscape Stephen F. Mills, 2013-12-19
American landscapes are some of the best known images in the world we recognize Niagara Falls the Grand Canyon the Manhattan skyline and the streets of San Francisco in a thousand advertisements and TV shows But how have these places come to be as they are and why are some places familiar while others are quite unknown The American Landscape introduces the reader to the changing face of the American environment tracing the way in which the present array of forests and farms parks and superhighways cities and suburbs have come about and how these changes have been thought about painted turned into movie sets etc Landscape and Film Martin Lefebvre, 2006 First Published in 2006 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Vermont Landscape Images, 1776-1976 Robert Hull Fleming Museum, 1976 What's in the Picture? Susie Brooks, 2020-03-05 This simple engaging introduction to art combines superb reproductions of an imaginative selection of artworks by artists ranging from Rousseau and Seurat to Lowry and Van Gogh With beautifully pitched text supported by friendly cartoon style illustrations What s in the Picture invites young children to search for particular objects or other detail in the paintings displayed Further questions encourage children to examine each artwork and to explain very simply what is happening in the pictures Photography and Flight Denis Cosgrove, William L. Fox, 2010-04-01 Used for everything from geographic evaluation to secret spy missions aerial photography has a rich and storied history ably recounted here in Photography and Flight Aerial photography is marked by its dependency on technological developments in both photography and aerospace and the authors chart the history of this photography as it tracked the evolution of these technologies Beginning with early images taken from hot air balloons fixed platforms and subsequent handheld camera technology Denis Cosgrove and William Fox then explain how military reconnaissance and governmental projects were instrumental in catalyzing these and other innovations in the field They examine pivotal historical moments in which aerial photography began to establish itself as essential tool such as in World War II military strategies high altitude photography taken from postwar rockets and aircraft and the use of aerial photography during the cold war and the Cuban Missile Crisis The book also explores the advancement of geographic scholarship through aerial photography ranging from military excursions into Antarctica to the images of the curvature of the earth taken during the Apollo space missions While digital technology and remote sensing have changed the landscape of photography Photography and Flight argues that they have not diminished the significance of aerial photography in providing images of the earth Rather new technologies and resulting innovations such as Google Earth have enabled the mass democratization of access to such information Photography and Flight ultimately reveals how the camera lens from far away continues to unearth telling details about the land and those who live upon it Cultural Landscapes of Post-socialist Cities Mariusz Czepczyński, 2008 Since the velvet revolution of 1989 the totalitarian communist urbanscapes of central European cities have been cleansed or recycled bringing in new architectural functional and social forms to transform how they look and how they are used This book examines the culturally conditional variations between local powers and structures despite the similarities in the general processes and systems It assesses whether these urbanscapes clearly reflect the social cultural and political conditions and aspirations of these transitional countries and so a critical analysis of them provides important insights

Images ,2008 Modern American Landscapes Mick Gidley,Robert Lawson-Peebles,1995 The Photographic Journal ,1926 Vols for 1853 include the transactions of the Royal Photographic Society of Great Britain Landscape Journal ,1997 Environment and Behavior Studies Irwin Altman,Kathleen Christensen,2012-12-06 This eleventh volume in the series departs from the pattern of earlier volumes Some of those volumes addressed research design and policy topics in terms of environmental settings for example homes communities neighborhoods and public places Others focused on environmental users for example chil dren and the elderly The present volume examines the field of environment and behavior studies itself in the form of intellectual histories of some of its most productive and still visible senior participants In so doing we hope to provide readers with a grand sweep of the field its research and design content methodology institutions and past and future trajectories through the experiences and intellectual histories of its participants Why intellectual histories Several factors led to the decision to launch this project For one 1989 was an anniversary and commemorative year for the Environmental Design Research Association perhaps the major and most long standing interdisciplinary organization of environment and behavior re searchers and practitioners Established in 1969 this organization has been the vehicle for generations of researchers and practitioners from many disciplines to come together annually to exchange ideas present papers and develop professional and personal relationships It held its first and twentieth meetings in North Carolina with the twentieth conference substantially devoted to dis cussions of the past present and future of the field a taking stock so to speak Thus it seemed appropriate to launch a volume on intellectual histories at this significant juncture in the life of the field The American Landscape Graham Clarke,1993 This critical and cultural overview of American landscape and travel literature draws on sources from the 17th through 19th centuries and includes diaries and journals travelogues guide books essays lectures and poems The material includes writings on the Puritan response pre colonial eighteenth century accounts the immediate post colonial period expeditions surveys the picturesque and the sublime wilderness literature the West the South New England Transcendentalism California the Hudson River School Luminism the Rocky Mountains and Plains Also includes maps Vivid, Intense Images by American Photographers Victoria Espy Burns,1993 Seeing America University of Rochester. Memorial Art Gallery,2006 A stunning full color volume that examines 82 pieces in the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery s American collection and their connections to American history culture literature and politics Seeing America is the first ever catalog of the University of Rochester Memorial Art Gallery s American collection Founded in 1913 the Memorial Art Gallery was created in conjunction with the University of Rochester so that it would function within a scholarly milieu yet at the same time perform service as a community museum From its conception it has been an ardent advocate for American art which so many counterpart institutions snubbed until at least the 1930s and more often until well after World War II in favor of European and Asian art The 336 page full color volume examines 82 objects and their connections to American history culture literature and politics The 73 articles present a running commentary on each piece by knowledgeable and thoughtful contemporary scholars and artists writing with expertise and insight ultimately presenting a new and deeper understanding that enhances the reader viewer's appreciation of the work The tour ranges from Colonial times to the twenty first century from Maine to Florida to the far West from mighty historical subjects to intimate byways from august figures and events to the humblest and most anonymous The diversity of American experience on display here reminds us that the best American art is inextricably bound up with the essential truths of American experience
