The Next American Frontier Robert B. Reich, 1983 Something in the Soil Patricia Nelson Limerick, 2001 Patricia Limerick is simply one of the best writers alive Garry Wills Losing Time Otis Graham, 1994-01-04 Industrial policy reform Otis Graham argues is an important part of a public private set of remedies but it hinges upon an improved use of policy history and of historical perspective generally He proposes an explicit if minimalist approach by the federal government that would unify and reform our de facto industrial policies in order to equip the United States with the institutional capacity to formulate industrial interventions guided by strategic vision and bipartisan participation by labor and management

Taylorism Transformed Stephen P. Waring, 2016-08-01 This intellectual history interprets recent American business management ideas as political theory describing their underlying assumptions about power and value According to Stephen Waring most business management theory descends from either Frederick Taylor's bureaucratic theory of scientific management or Elton Mayo's corporatist idea of human relations Waring discusses the subsequent evolution of several management theories and techniques including organization theory computer simulation management by objectives sensitivity training job enrichment and innovations usually attributed to the Japanese such as quality control circles

Presidential Campaigns, Slogans, Issues, and Platforms Robert North Roberts, Scott John Hammond, Valerie A. Sulfaro, 2012-06-12 The book provides a comprehensive discussion of the major issues and events surrounding all American presidential elections from the earliest years of the Republic through the campaign of 2008 Presidential Campaigns Slogans Issues and Platforms The Complete Encyclopedia is an easy to use reference work designed to encourage students and anyone interested in democratic politics to undertake a greater understanding of this complex aspect of American political life The three volume work covers each presidential campaign in depth examining a large number of related issues ranging from the use of social media in modern presidential campaigns to negative campaign ads and key slogans used in every presidential campaign Volume One contains entries offering specific and focused information on issues trends factors slogans strategies and other more detailed elements of presidential campaigning from the first stirrings of the American democratic process to the first decade of the 21st century Volumes Two and Three provide chronological accounts of every presidential campaign since the ratification of the Constitution through the campaign of 2008 with Volume Two covering the campaign of 1788-89 to the campaign of 1908 and Volume Three covering the campaign of 1912 to the campaign of 2008

Unavoidable Industrial Restructuring in Latin America Fernando Fajnzylber, 1990 In the recent economic history of Latin America no country has yet found the means to combine effectively economic growth with equity Unavoidable Industrial Restructuring in Latin America compares the development path of Latin America with that of the East Asian newly industrialized countries NICs the United States and Europe in the 1970s and 1980s to show the national policies and international cooperation necessary to set Latin American countries on the road to healthy economies Fernando Fajnzylber argues that technological and industrial progress is the driving force of a positive relationship among dynamism competitiveness austerity and equity Latin America's failure to master this technological progress underlies its economic difficulties To overcome the inheritance of past mistakes the author maintains Latin America must undergo not only macroeconomic stabilization and a reduction of the debt burden but also a complete transformation of the production structure The role of the state and the institutional setup need to be modified and new social and sectoral policies devised Fajnzylber sees this radical restructuring as an unavoidable step if Latin America is ever to achieve a workable balance between growth and equity

Facing Reality James M. Gillies, Institute for Research on Public Policy, 1986 In this book addressed primarily to business leaders politicians and public servants the author speculates about the economic problems that changing international conditions appear to be creating argues that existing policies no longer work and must be replaced with new ones based on a new national consensus about economic goals reviews the ways business and government have worked together in the past to formulate economic strategies and suggests ways the government can create a new consensus and the prospects for its success in doing so

The Great Plains, 2001 American Politics Kenneth M. Dolbeare, Murray Jacob Edelman, 1985 Caught in the Net Alessandro Bonanno, Douglas Constance, 1996 A documentary history that studies the series of laws passed by the US Congress to establish the federal immigration and naturalization policies which have been put into effect since the founding of the nation legislation which has been designed increasingly to restrict and curtail immigration and which has been particularly harsh on Asian immigrants since its inception Complete chapters are devoted to each major piece of legislation from the Reconstruction era to the Immigration Act of 1965 Documents attached to the end of each essay treat particular topics related to it Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

Global Control Peter McMahon, 2002 Information systems and control technologies are key to globalization and while generally facilitating the overall trend to spatial reorganization they also effect change through the pervasive influence of internal systems logic Thus the author argues the dominant institutions of states firms and markets transform global development and are themselves transformed by key information technologies More specifically the book identifies the key phases of modern globalization and analyses the crucial role played by different information technologies at each point in time
