Ngoni Nc'wala Ceremony Matshakaza Blackson Lukhero,1992      Five Hundred Years Rediscovered Natalie Swanepoel,Amanda Esterhuysen,Phil Bonner,2008-08-01 In the age of the African Renaissance southern Africa has needed to reinterpret the past in fresh and more appropriate ways The last 500 years represent a strikingly unexplored and misrepresented period which remains disfigured by colonial apartheid assumptions most notably in the way that African societies are depicted as fixed passive isolated un enterprising and unenlightened This period is one the most formative in relation to southern Africa s past while remaining in many ways the least known Key cultural contours of the sub continent took shape while in a jagged and uneven fashion some of the features of modern identities emerged Enormous internal economic innovation and political experimentation was taking place at the same time as expanding European mercantile forces started to press upon southern African shores and its hinterlands This suggests that interaction flux and mixing were a strong feature of the period rather than the homogeneity and fixity proposed in standard historical and archaeological writings Five Hundred Years Rediscovered represents the first step taken by a group of archaeologists and historians to collectively reframe revitalise and re examine the last 500 years By integrating research and developing trans frontier research networks the group hopes to challenge thinking about the region s expanding internal and colonial frontiers and to broaden current perceptions about southern Africa s colonial past      African Folklore Philip M. Peek,Kwesi Yankah,2004-03-01 Written by an international team of experts this is the first work of its kind to offer comprehensive coverage of folklore throughout the African continent Over 300 entries provide in depth examinations of individual African countries ethnic groups religious practices artistic genres and numerous other concepts related to folklore Featuring original field photographs a comprehensive index and thorough cross references African Folklore An Encyclopedia is an indispensable resource for any library s folklore or African studies collection Also includes seven maps      One Zambia, One Nation, One Country Mwelwa C. Musambachime,2016-04-07 Zambia became an independent Republic of Zambia on 24 October 1964 with Kenneth Kaunda as the first president for twenty seven years He and his successors have over the last fifty years created a stable and united nation under the motto One Zambia One Nation Zambia is regarded as a beautiful friendly diverse and unspoilt country Aside from the majestic Victoria Falls on the Zambezi River despite its considerable mineral wealth and agricultural potential Zambia is not well known This book One Zambia One Nation One Country provides the reader with a virtual guide to Zambia s profile of her geographical location forestry rivers lakes and dams history people and its government culture governance economy Economy wild life tourism and social services In addition it gives comprehensive information for the potential tourists The motto One Zambia One Nation is borrowed from our coat of arms to provide a title to this book dedicated to President Kenneth David Kaunda the founding father of the nation for his service to the nation uniting the country and building a strong foundation of a modern stable and united nation      Ceremony! ,2007      A History
