In one of many long durational performances in the renewed solo career that followed Abramovi famously lived in a New York gallery for twelve days without eating or speaking nourished only by prolonged eye contact with audience members. It was here in 2002 that author James Westcott first encountered her beginning an exceptionally close relation between biographer and subject. When Marina Abramovi Dies draws on Westcott's personal observations of Abramovi his unprecedented access to her archive and hundreds of hours of interviews he conducted with the artist and the people closest to her. The result is a unique and vivid portrait of the charismatic self proclaimed grandmother of performance art.

Marina Abramović Marina Abramovic, 2017-02-01 At once radical controversial and revered Marina Abramovic is the progenitor of contemporary performance art At once radical controversial and revered Marina Abramovic is one of the most discussed artists today Famous for her groundbreaking performance works she continues to expand the boundaries of art This publication accompanying her first major retrospective in Europe gives an extensive overview of her work from the earliest years until today film photography paintings and objects installations and archival material Since the early 1970s Abramovic has explored the intersection between performing and visual art in her work and though rarely overtly political posed questions of power and hierarchy In addressing fundamental issues of our existence and seeking the core of such notions as loss memory pain endurance and trust she both provokes and moves

Walk Through Walls Marina Abramovic, 2016-10-25 I had experienced absolute freedom I had felt that my body was without boundaries limitless that pain didn't matter that nothing mattered at all and it intoxicated me In 2010 more than 750 000 people stood in line at Marina Abramović's MoMA retrospective for the chance to sit across from her and communicate with her nonverbally in an unprecedented durational performance that lasted more than 700 hours This celebration of nearly fifty years of groundbreaking performance art demonstrated once again that Marina Abramović is truly a force of nature. The child of Communist war hero parents under Tito's regime in postwar Yugoslavia she was raised with a relentless work ethic. Even as she was beginning to build an international artistic career Marina lived at home under her mother's abusive control strictly obeying a 10 p.m. curfew. But nothing could quell her insatiable curiosity her desire to connect with people or her distinctly Balkan sense of humor all of which informs her art and her life. The beating heart of Walk Through Walls is an operatic love story a twelve year collaboration with fellow performance artist Ulay much of which was spent penniless in a van traveling across Europe a relationship that began to unravel and came to a dramatic end atop the Great Wall of China. Marina's story by turns moving epic and dryly funny informs an incomparable artistic career that involves pushing her body past the limits of fear pain exhaustion and danger in an uncompromising quest for emotional and spiritual transformation. A remarkable work of performance in its own right Walk Through Walls is a vivid and powerful rendering of the unparalleled life of an extraordinary artist.
