Lead More, Control Less Marvin Weisbord, Sandra Janoff, 2015-10-12 Unleash Commitment Initiative and Innovation. In their decades of leading groups all over the world, Marvin Weisbord and Sandra Janoff discovered they could get superior results by creating an unconventional approach to leadership. Leaders still need to get everyone aligned around the same goals. But to maximize energy, creativity, and productivity, they gain more by focusing on structure rather than behavior, enabling people to take responsibility and manage themselves. Lead More Control Less describes eight essential skills for establishing a culture of autonomy and self-leadership. Using examples and case studies, Weisbord and Janoff describe how leaders can share responsibility, defuse group conflicts, show everyone the big picture, and more. With this approach, leaders truly gain more control by giving it up.

In their decades of leading groups all over the world Marvin Weisbord and Sandra Janoff discovered they could get better results by helping people coordinate and control their own work rather than by issuing orders from above This led people to higher motivation greater creativity and longer lasting results than more traditional practices The most effective way to lead they found is to focus everyone on the same goal set up structures that encourage self regulation and get out of the way But this means learning a set of unconventional skills Lead More Control Less describes eight essential skills for establishing a culture that encourages people to take charge of themselves Using examples and case studies Weisbord and Janoff show leaders how they can share responsibility defuse group conflicts enable everyone to get the big picture and more And they also help leaders deal with personal pressures such as managing anxiety and understanding why the negative reactions they get may have absolutely nothing to do with them By wearing authority more lightly leaders can unleash commitment initiative and innovation beyond what they ever experienced before Mastering these eight skills frees leaders to concentrate
