Library, 1974 Minority Responses Minako Kurokawa, 1970 Religious Minorities in Iran Eliz Sanasarian, 2000-04-13 Eliz Sanasarian s book explores the political and ideological relationship between non Muslim religious minorities in Iran and the state during the formative years of the Islamic Republic to the present day Her analysis is based on a detailed examination of the history and experiences of the Armenians Assyrians Chaldeans Jews Zoroastrians Bahais and Iranian Christians and describes how these communities have responded to state policies regarding minorities Many of her findings are constructed out of personal interviews with members of these communities While the book is essentially an empirical study it also highlights more general questions associated with exclusion and marginalization and the role of the state in defining these boundaries This is an important and original book which will make a significant contribution to the literature on minorities and to the workings of the Islamic Republic Israel Social Science Research , 1983 Focus on Minorities,

Supplement Fort Bragg (N.C.). Library, 1974 Muslim Uyghur Students in a Chinese Boarding School Yangbin Chen, 2008-05-29 One of the most controversial policies in Chinese minority education concerns the so called inland ethnic minority schools or classes in Han inhabited areas in China Since 2000 boarding Xinjiang Classes have been established in the eastern cities of China for high school students from the Xinjiang Uyghur Autonomous Region in order to educate young Uyghur and other ethnic minority students through the national curricula Although the Xinjiang Classes are supposed to promote ethnic integration between the Muslim Uyghur minority and the Han majority there often remains a gap between the stated policy goal and its actual implementation Guided by the theoretical framework of social capital analysis this book therefore examines how Uyghur students in the Xinjiang Classes respond to the school goal of ethnic integration Chen conceptualizes the process of Uyghur students responses to the school goal of ethnic integration as social recapitalization While their former social capital from families or communities in Xinjiang is constrained in the boarding school Uyghur youths are able to develop independent and new social capital to facilitate their schooling Nonetheless they lack bridging social capital which makes the goal of ethnic integration more difficult to achieve
