Minus And The Great Wide World:

Modern European Culture and Consciousness, 1870-1980 Paul Monaco, 1983-06-30 On both personal and public levels the past century has brought Western Europeans some of the most devastating episodes of human history Paul Monaco identifies the major modes of consciousness that Europeans have developed as ways of interpreting their experiences Europe appears to many Americans as an aging dowager with a grand past but little future Yet beyond the stereotype lies the complex reality The U S and the Soviet Union both failed to carry on the ideological and cultural traditions of the Western world to which they fell heir at the end of World War II By contrast Western Europe quickly recovered its cultural equilibrium Modern European Culture and Consciousness shows how Europe's amazing recovery took place Monaco argues that the sensibility now being forged in Europe will provide the guide to the twenty first century He illustrates this thesis by analysis of novels plays and especially motion pictures which have gradually supplanted novels The Wide World Magazine, 1898 Mademoiselle, 1935 Everyland, 1922 W. H. Auden Humphrey Carpenter, 2011-10-20 W H Auden disapproved of literary biography Or did he The truth is far more equivocal than at first seems apparent There is no denying he delivered himself of such unambiguous pronouncements as Biographies of writers are always superfluous and usually in bad taste and that he asked for his friends to burn his letters at his death but against that Auden himself often reviewed literary biographies and normally with enthusiasm Moreover he argued for biographies of writers such as Dryden Trollope Wagner and Gerard Manley Hopkins as their lives would tell us something about their art Humphrey Carpenter himself nicely summarizes Auden's ambiguity on this question Here referring to literary biography as so often in his life Auden adopted a dogmatic attitude which did not reflect the full range of his opinions and which he sometimes flatly contradicted Although the biography was not authorized it did receive the co operation of the Auden Estate which gave permission for letters and unpublished works to be quoted The result is a biography that was widely praised on first publication in 1981 and which continues to hold its own Now is the obvious time to reissue it with the character of Humphrey Carpenter playing an important role in Alan Bennett's The Habit of Art In his introduction Alan Bennett writes When I started writing the play I made much use of the biographies of both Auden and Britten written by Humphrey Carpenter and both are models of their kind Indeed I was consulting his books so much that eventually Carpenter found his way into the play Carpenter is a model biographer diligent unspeculative sympathetic and extremely good at finding out what happened when and with whom admirably detailed and researched study John Bayley The Listener an illuminating book full of information unobtrusively affectionate it describes with unpretentious elegance the curve of a great poet's life and work Frank Kermode Guardian sharpens and usually lights up even the most canvassed parts of the Auden life and myth a deeply interesting book about a deeply interesting life Roy Fuller Sunday Times the story of a remarkable man told by one of the best living biographers David Cecil Book Choice Turkey World, 1928 Radio News, 1926 Some issues 1943 July 1948 include separately paged and numbered section called Radio electronic engineering edition called Radionics edition in 1943 A Generation of Three Gary Pettit,2014-06-27 Arguably the most profound fifty years of American history came in the twentieth century with involvement in both World Wars Korea and Vietnam The Taylors were caught in this period with three generations being sent to war starting with Jeff flying over Western France where he commands an ambitious assassination mission Unfortunately it is a mission that is doomed to fail Returning home Jeff marries and has a son Robert Jeff is assigned to flight training where Robert grows up Robert demonstrates a natural ability best shown when he serves in the island hopping campaign across the Pacific Unfortunately Robert also has to deal with the threat of treason following the internment of his wife and child Roberts Son Glen demonstrates a remarkable level headed approach to anything he does and follows his fathers footsteps into the US Navy In 1968 Glen is shot down over Vietnam Captured he is imprisoned by the Vietnamese where fate sees him share incarceration with an old foe Eventually returning home Glen becomes a test pilot where he meets and falls in love with an English adjutant Love blossoms and a surprising link is revealed one evening However tragedy strikes leaving their future together in doubt School Arts ,1926 What Is Architecture? Paul Shephard,2013-03-25 British architect and critic Paul Shephard is a fresh new voice in current postmodern debates about the history and meaning of architecture In this wonderfully unorthodox quasi novelistic essay complete with characters and dialogue but no plot Shephard draws a boundary around the subject of architecture describing its place in art and technology its place in history and its place in our lives now At a time when it is fashionable to say that architecture is everything from philosophy to science to art to theory Shephard boldly and irreverently sets limits to the subject so that we may talk about architecture for what it is He takes strong positions names the causes of the problems and tells us how bad things are and how they can get better Along the way he marshals some unlikely but plausible witnesses who testify about the current state of architecture Instead of the usual claims or complaints by the usual suspects these observations are of an altogether different order Constructed as a series of fables many of them politically incorrect What is Architecture is a refreshing meditation on the options hopes possibilities and failures of shelter in society Bibliography of the History of Medicine , The William and Mary Literary Magazine ,1911 The School Arts Magazine Pedro Joseph Lemos,1926 Radio & TV News ,1926 Some issues Aug
